FIND DOUBLE MURDER PLOT

Pair in Jail at Shreveport, La., Said to Have Made Confessions.

EACH HAD TIRED OF OWN HELPMATE

Police Uncover New Clues in East Liverpool Murder Sensation.

Shreveport, La., Sept. 6.—Execution of a double murder plot by which Mrs. C. C. Bailey conspired to rid herself of her husband, a wealthy lumber mill owner, and A. L. Watson aimed to do away with his wife, was revealed today by Sheriff Flournoy, who says he has written confessions of both Watson and Mrs. Bailey, who are confined in jail here.

According to the confessions the sheriff says, Mrs. Watson was killed in a Texas town several months ago. Then Watson came to Metairie, La., where Bailey operated a lumber mill, obtained employment and was taken into the Bailey home as a member of the family. Bailey was murdered Monday night.

When Watson was arrested he first declared Bailey was slain by a burglar. Entered into Compact.

According to the confessions narrated by Sheriff Flournoy, three months ago at Flannigan, Texas, Mrs. Bailey and Watson entered into a compact by which Watson was to poison his wife and Mrs. Bailey her husband. Watson did away with his wife without arousing suspicion, but repeated efforts by Mrs. Bailey failed, because she says, she did not know how to administer the dose.

NOW THEY'RE CHARGING

A CHAMPAGNE CONSPIRACY.

Washington, Sept. 6.—A champagne conspiracy, on the part of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and forty other railroads was charged before the interstate commerce commission today by a firm of dealers in wines. The firm complained that the railroads discriminated in favor of California champagnes by charging only two dollars per hundred pounds on such shipments from California to New York, while they fixed a charge of $2.25 on champagnes shipped from New York to the Pacific coast.

This, it was set forth, virtually shut out the foreign wines from the west.

WALDO UNDER LIVELY QUIZ

Mayor Gaynor's Relations to New York Situation Basis of It.

ATTORNEYS WAGE A LEGAL BATTLE

Trial of Inspector Haynes Causes Shift of Interest in Rosenthal Case.

New York, Sept. 6.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and police problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Haynes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements reflecting on the commissioner.

For nearly an hour Thomas Thacher Haynes counsel sought to read into the record the mayor's speeches and utterances on the vice problem. Frustrated in his efforts by Terence Farley, assistant corporation counsel, appearing for the police department, the lawyer finally gained recognition from the trial commissioner, Douglas I. McKay, by this declaration: "I am merely trying to prove that Mayor Gaynor's policy was one under which the social evil was recognized as an unconquerable problem which had to be endured, but that the evil had to be present a front of outward defiance; that in the failure of Inspector Haynes to raid disorderly houses he was merely reflecting the policy and that any orders issued to him by Police Commissioner Waldo were directly in violation of that policy."

Waldo Grows Snappy.

Mr. Thacher was then permitted to proceed with his cross examination along the lines he desired.

"Does not Mayor Gaynor direct your policy toward vice?" he asked Waldo. "He does not," snapped the commissioner.

"Have you ever observed the mayor's own views on the excise question?" "The mayor's views," Mr. Waldo replied, "were given to the police in general order No. 7, in 1910. That order is still in force."

"Don't you know the mayor's views on vice are that we have to suffer this evil?"

"I do not know anything about the mayor's views except what he told me; he never told me anything like that."

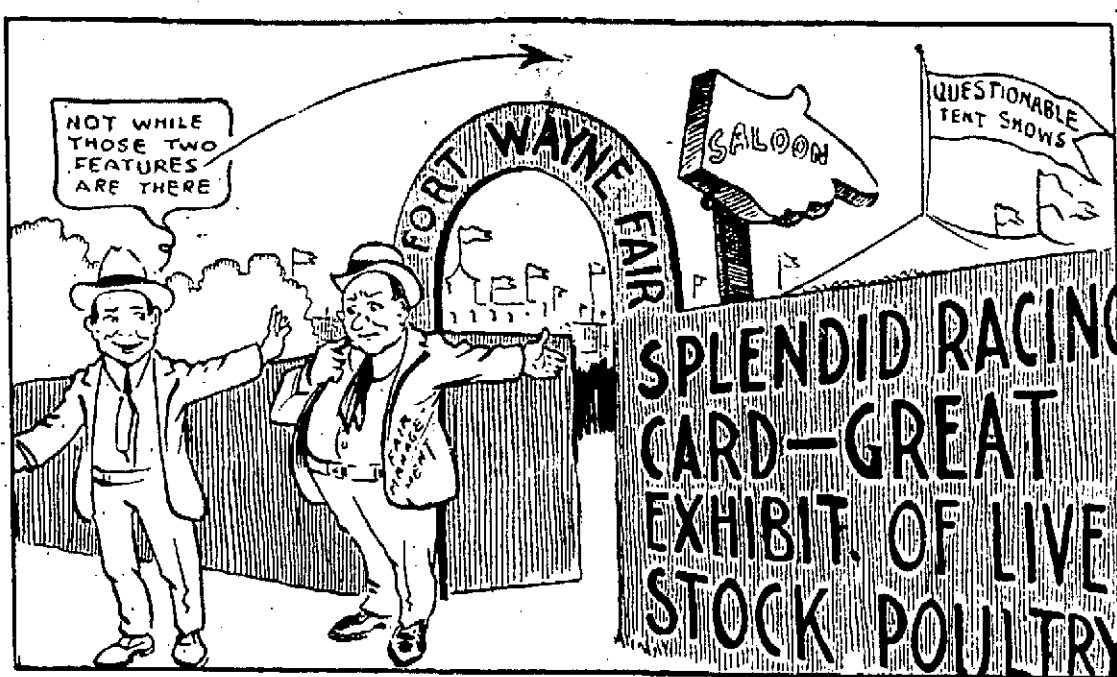

"Has Mayor Gaynor ever instructed you how to deal with disorderly houses?"

"What He Expected of Haynes."

"He has never given me any instructions on that subject."

Will We?

Some of us have criticised the Fort Wayne fair in times past because of certain objectionable features.

Now that these have been removed, will we show the management that we will patronize a clean exhibition and thus encourage a continuance of a real fair?

TRIO OF ARMY AIRMEN KILLED

Two Britons and a German Meet Death in Making Flights.

BLAME BAD WEATHER

St. Ewenage, Eng., Sept. 6.—Two more British army officers lost their lives while flying today. Captain Patrick Hamilton had taken Lieut. Stewart with him as a passenger in his biplane. The two officers had flown for a considerable time when a strong wind suddenly sprang up and in endeavoring to make headway against it one of the wings of the aeroplane collapsed. The machine fell to the ground from an altitude of 250 feet and was destroyed. The bodies of the two officers were found in the wreckage. Captain Hamilton had obtained his pilot's certificate only on March 12 this year. He was an infantry officer belonging to the Worcestershire regiment but was detached from duty to the army flying corps. Lieut. Stewart was not an aviator.

GERMAN DASHES TO DEATH.

Munich, Bavaria, Sept. 6.—A German military aviator was killed near here this morning during a reconnoitering flight. Lieut. Steger, of the Bavarian army, had ascended in his biplane to make a report of the position of the opposing force in the maneuvers. The weather was very stormy and when his machine had reached a height of 300 feet it suddenly buckled and crashed to the earth. Lieut. Steger died shortly after he was picked up. He was a novice in aviation, having obtained his aviator's certificate only three weeks ago.

ALTONA FIRM BANKRUPT.

Maggert & Company Files Petition in Local Federal Court.

A partnership petition in bankruptcy has been filed in the federal court here for Maggert & Co., of Altona, DeKalb county, and individual petitions have been filed by Benjamin F. and Harry Maggert, operating the store. The partnership liabilities amount to $2,481.26, and the assets are $1,054.98. The liabilities of Benjamin F. Maggert amount to $3,778, with assets in the sum of $1,015. Harry Maggert's liabilities amount to $3,010, and the assets scheduled are $310.

The firm of Maggert & Co. has operated a general merchandise store for some time at Altona.

WILLIAMS IMPROVING.

Joseph Williams, kicked in the head by a horse Thursday morning, has partially recovered from the state of unconsciousness of yesterday. Mr. Williams is at the Hope hospital, and the attending doctor says that the fracture of the skull is not as serious as at first believed.

SHOULD CATER TO LOCAL SENTIMENT

Postmaster as to Sunday Closing.

ADVISES DISCRETION

Atlantic City, Sept. 6.—"Postmasters of the country know the sentiment of their respective communities and should cater to them," declared Charles P. Granfield, first assistant postmaster general, at the annual convention of first-class postmasters today when asked for an interpretation of the Sunday closing law.

"The legislation simply legalizes what the department put into effect gradually during the past year. Postmasters should use their own discretion in interpreting it. The law was not enacted to impose hardships on patrons, but to give the postal employees a day of rest wherever possible."

In an interview later Mr. Granfield said that one-cent postage for first-class mail could not be accomplished until a higher rate was charged for second-class matter which last year, he said, entailed a loss of $65,000,000.

"Parcels post, which goes into effect on January 1, will be operated at but a small profit because of the high rate that the law provides for transportation for three zones. From fifty miles and above, the express companies can successfully compete with the postal service and make a good profit. To do this they must reduce their present rates, however."

The Knights and Ladies of Security, Fort Wayne council, No. 1427, will meet at its hall this evening in regular weekly session.

DOUBT SUFFICIENCY OF MOKI RITES; WED AGAIN.

Los Angeles, Sept. 6.—Doubting the sufficiency of a Moki Indian wedding ceremony in the eyes of their relatives, Roman Hubb, son of the republican state chairman of Arizona, and Miss Alma Juliette Dorr, daughter of a New York and Washington capitalist, hastened into Pasadena today to be remarried by a Catholic priest before they announced the nuptials. They are said to be the first white couple ever wed under Moki rites.

Miss Dorr was visiting the Hubb ranch at Ganado, Arizona, to witness the annual Moki dance.

FALSE ALARMS OF PRISON RIOTING

Keep Militia at Jackson Penitentiary on a Live-ly Move.

FLOGGING UNDER WAY

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 6.—Two false riot alarms and the shooting of the employee of a tile company whom the soldiers thought was attempting to steal dynamite kept the militia guarding Jackson prison rather busy today.

It was stated that the convicts were not responsible for any of the trouble and that barring the possible infliction of corporal punishment upon alleged disturbers, everything was quiet inside the penitentiary.

John Miller was the victim of a soldier's bullet. A militia detail, guarding a dynamite magazine at a clay pit about three miles from the prison, found Miller inside the "dead line" and one of the guardsmen opened fire. The bullet struck Miller over the right eye inflicting a possibly fatal scalp wound. The presence of a man, said to be a tramp, near one of the prison factories, brought a number of militiamen double quick to the scene and boys throwing stones near the prison furnished the other incident.

Prison officials have been silent as to the prisoners recently flogged or still slated for severe punishment, but it has been admitted that such methods were to be used.

Ten Flogged Yesterday.

Ten convicts, leaders in the riot of Tuesday, were flogged yesterday by the "slap barrel" method. Rumor has it that one prisoner died from shock. Warden Simpson entered a denial and refused to comment on the floggings.

"In the 'slap barrel' method the convict is strapped, then he is placed across a barrel with his face downward and a score of other prisoners were 'strung over his bare back. Then a water-soaked strap is applied until the victim has the feeling of one stung by a thousand hornets. The shot protects the flesh slightly, but the torture is rendered doubly agonizing by penetration of the salt water into the blisters."

This development in the art of flogging was invented in the Marquette, Mich., prison of the northern peninsula many years ago. The colonial whipping post and the modern "delator" never achieved the effect of the "slap barrel."

A score of other prisoners were "strung up." Leather-covered handkerchiefs are fastened around the wrists. Then the wrists are tied to a bar overhead so that the prisoner's feet just touch the floor. The feet are held down by other straps. The victim rests his arms by standing on his tiptoes.

Miss Bess Hite has returned from Dwight, Ill., where she had been in attendance on the funeral of her nephew, Ray Carson, formerly of Fort Wayne.

E. F. Huggins, of East Wayne street, is confined to his home today owing to sickness.

CITY VOTERS COME SLOWLY

But Registration in the Country Precincts is Very Heavy.

SEVERAL CLERKS FAIL TO APPEAR

Later Hours of Day Expected to Bring Out Fort Wayne Voters.

Reports received at democratic and republican headquarters late this afternoon announce a very light registration of voters in the city precincts. Democratic leaders, who have been working hard to secure a complete registration today believe, however, that the city voters will register this evening. While the boards are at liberty to close the polls at 6 o'clock, it is said that most of the registration places will be kept open until 8 o'clock, or until voters stop coming.

Much joy was demonstrated in the political camps, however, when news came from the country townships stating that the registration outside of the city is unusually heavy. Country voters are taking opportunity of today's weather to leave their farm work and register.

Democratic County Chairman Johnson is personally working to bring the voters to the polling places, and spent the morning in El River township. Other democratic leaders lost no time in urging the men to register. This evening it is expected that all of the registration places will be busy until 8 o'clock.

Clerks Fail to Report.

It is reported that three republican registration clerks failed to appear at the polls this morning. The republican

WATERWAYS MEN GREET MR. TAFT

President Holds Informal Levee in New London Hotel Lobby.

HIS ANKLE IS BETTER

New London, Conn., Sept. 6.—President Taft landed here from the Mayflower after noon today. He was accompanied by Mrs. Taft, Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Mabel Boardman, of the American Red Cross. Charles D. Hilles and George R. Sheldon, of the republican national committee, remained on the Mayflower.

The president, still suffering with his ankle, had to walk a short distance to an automobile and upon reaching his hotel a chair was quickly provided for him in the lobby. His ankle seemed much better, however, than when he left Washington.

In the lobby of the hotel several hundred delegates to the Atlantic deeper waterways convention were presented to him. After the reception the president's party had luncheon at the hotel. When this was over the president went by automobile to Fort Griswold, where he was scheduled to deliver an address.

RABBI RICE RETURNS.

Regular Services to Be Resumed at Jewish Temple This Evening.

Rabbi William Rice has returned from his vacation, and announcement is made that regular services will be resumed at the Jewish temple, beginning this evening at 7:45 o'clock, the usual hour.

Rabbi Rice's theme will be "The Problem of Labor." All are welcome to attend the services.

SEES FORT WAYNE FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1874.

Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Kelsey, of 517 Lawton place, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Ruch, of Milton, Pa. Mr. Ruch is 81 years of age, and was a resident of Fort Wayne for three years, beginning in 1844.

TO COME INTO MIDDLE WEST

Governor Wilson's Itinerary for First Trip is Announced.

COL. ROOSEVELT IN NORTH DAKOTA

Makes Principal Address to Progressive Convention at Fargo.

Sa Girt, N. D., Sept. 6.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson today announced the itinerary of his first trip to the middle west. It is as follows: Sept. 17, state fair, Sioux City, Iowa; Sept. 18, Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn.; Sept. 19, Milwaukee, Wis.; Sept. 20, Columbus, O.; Sept. 21, Pittsburgh.

All the dates but the first are to be democratic mass meetings. At Columbus Gov. Huron will preside, and James M. Cox, candidate for governor, will speak.

The governor will travel in a special car attached to regular trains. Two stenographers, two typewriter operators, and a secretary will accompany him. Justice James W. Gerard, of New York, had an appointment with the governor today and Rabbi Stephen Wise, of New York will lunch with the candidate here tomorrow.

SPENDS DAY IN NORTH DAKOTA.

Colonel Roosevelt Makes Principal Address at Fargo.

Crookston, Minn., Sept. 6.—On his way to North Dakota, Col. Roosevelt passed through here early today. He was to spend the day in North Dakota, making his principal speech in Fargo before the state progressive convention. Col. Roosevelt was due in Grand Forks at 9 o'clock to remain there for an hour. Fargo was next on his itinerary and the colonel planned to spend the afternoon there. This evening he will make a brief speech in Jamestown.

From North Dakota, Col. Roosevelt will go to Montana, where he will make five speeches tomorrow. The former president said today he did not desire to deal with personalities in his campaign and that although in his speeches in Minnesota and Iowa he had expressed the opinion that Woodrow Wilson was receiving the support of reactionaries and "bosses" he wished to make the burden of his campaign speeches an explanation and advocacy of progressive principles.

SAY TIME LIMIT HAS EXPIRED.

Fact May Bar Roosevelt Electors From Ticket in Louisiana.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 6.—If contentions of the Taft leaders, backed by the opinion of Secretary of State Herbert Hoover, are correct, the Louisiana progressives will not have the names of Col. Roosevelt and his other candidates on the state ticket at the November elections. To secure a place on the ticket, the progressives are required by law to file a petition with the secretary of state signed by at least 1,000 electors. The Taft leaders and Secretary of State Herbert Hoover, brother of Clarence H. Herbert, in charge here of the Taft campaign, say that the time limit for filing the petition has expired.

Mr. Conover's Strange Relative

I HAD a peculiar experience Sunday," remarked Norton Conover. "I was called down to the south side to see a relative that I had never seen before."

"Yes," "Yes, and this relative was born here and had never lived in any other place but Fort Wayne, either."

"Well, it seems strange that you had never seen her before."

"It does seem strange; doesn't it? And yet it isn't any more strange than the fact that I didn't even know her name."

"What?" "Fact. And when I did go to see her I found she couldn't speak a word of English."

"And you say she never lived anywhere else but Fort Wayne?"

"Born right here in Fort Wayne."

"Well, for goodness sake, tell me about her. Who?"

"Who? Why, she is a baby girl that was born to my daughter, Mrs. Thomas Gately, at the Lutheran hospital."

"Gately. Well, I must hurry on," and he disappeared down street with a broad grin.

Ex-Congressman Robinson is First Voter to Register in His Precinct.

HON. JAMES M. ROBINSON.

Hon. James M. Robinson, former member of congress from this district, who came back from an extended stay in the west in order to lend his assistance to the democracy of the old home district in the present campaign, was the first voter in his precinct to register Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are living at the Anthony hotel, and the former congressman registered in the seventh precinct of the Third ward a moment after the registration board went into session. Regarding the new registration law, Mr. Robinson today said:

"The registration law is one of the best safeguards of the purity of the ballot and fair elections. This system of registration has prevailed for years in many of our states, and came under my notice while I was a member of the elections committee in congress."

"The best men of all parties have for years in Indiana tried to have it a part of our system, to go with the Australian ballot system and the voting by machines, as many of the states now do. By having a registration system, the illegal voter, the repeater and the floaters rushed in from other places to vote illegally are frauds of the past, and only the votes of citizens of the community can be cast and counted."

"The registration law prevails in the best states from New York to California, and is one of the best safeguards of citizenship to secure self-government, and Indiana, growing to be one of the best states of the nation, would be far behind her sister states if she had failed to adopt this improved method of cutting out the illegal voter. Citizens should have the right to rule themselves through the ballot, but they cannot do this if a floating bunch of illegal voters can cast ballots to make majorities on one side or the other."

I cannot too strongly urge every good citizen to register and thus help on the cause of good government."

The Sentinel, camera man, "snapped" Mr. Robinson a few moments after he emerged from the registration place.

HOLD MISSION FEAST.

Lutheran Redeemer Church at Swinney park Next Sunday.

The English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will hold its annual mission festival at the Swinney park on Sunday, with religious services in the forenoon at 11 o'clock and 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon, dinners and suppers being taken on the grounds, which will be served by the ladies of the congregation.

At the forenoon services the sermon will be preached by Rev. J. R. Graebner, pastor of the church. In the afternoon the pastor's brother, Rev. Theodore Graebner, of Chicago, will preach in English and Rev. Ph. Wambaug, of the Emmaus church, in German.

REOPENING SERVICES.

Bethany Church, After Extensive Improvements, Resumes Worship.

The Bethany Presbyterian church, which has been closed for the larger part of a month on account of extensive repairs and remodeling that have been in progress, will be reopened for services next Sunday, the main part of the building being used at that time. The Sunday school room has been enlarged by the addition of an extensive balcony and two more class rooms. New floors have been placed and changes made in the primary and beginners' rooms. The lighting plant has also been overhauled and gas is being piped into the different rooms for heating purposes. The exterior of the building is now being repainted and the entrance steps and sidewalks relaid and improved in a number of ways.

The improvement work was first inaugurated by the Christian Endeavor society of the church, which started a building fund, and then the Ladies' Aid society joined in the movement. The funds raised by them will place the church building in a splendid shape and give the congregation, the Sunday school and the church societies much more room. The services Sunday, the pastor, Rev. C. O. Shirey, announces, will be all the regular meetings: Sunday school at 9:30, preaching at 10:30, Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. and evening worship at 7:30.

SERIES OF SERMONS.

Delivered by Rev. C. Claud Travis to Young People.

Next Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock the pastor, Rev. C. Claud Travis, will begin a series of sermons at the Wayne Street M. E. church of special and vital interest to the young people, men and women. The subjects treated will be concerning the dangerous years of youth, some of the topics being: "The Glamour of Life's Illusions," "The Young Woman at Her Best and Her Worst," and "The Lover's Enchantment." The services will begin promptly at 7:45 o'clock and last only one hour. There will be a special program of music each evening.

PICNIC ON SATURDAY.

To Be Held by Plymouth Congregational Church at Foster Park.

The congregation and Sunday school of the Plymouth Congregational church will hold a picnic at Foster park tomorrow. A most interesting program of sports has been prepared, the arrangements being in charge of W. D. Kyle and G. A. Philbrick. There will be a long list of contests and races, for which prizes have been offered. These occur in the afternoon. In the forenoon there will be a base ball game. The ladies, with Mrs. G. A. Jacobs in charge, will furnish dinner at 12:30.

Married Men's Sodality.

The Married Men's sodality of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception will hold a special meeting in Library hall assembly rooms Friday evening at 7:30.

LAST ON CHARTER OF THE U. B. CHURCH

Mrs. Mary E. McNair, Pioneer, Dies at Age of Eighty-seven.

THE OTHER DEATHS

Mrs. Mary E. McNair, aged 87 years, one of the early settlers of Fort Wayne and Allen county, the widow of Charles McNair, died at 11:15 o'clock last night.

MRS. MARY E. MCNAIR.
Last Charter Member of Calvary U. B. Church Dies, Aged Eighty-Seven.

at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cassie Clark, 448 West DeWald street. Death was due to senility.

Mrs. McNair was the last surviving charter member of the Calvary United Brethren church of this city, and attended services there last Sunday.

The deceased was born at Greencastle, Pa., October 11, 1825. At the age of twelve years she came to Fort Wayne, and had lived in this city for the past seventy-five years. On October 11, 1860, her birthday anniversary, she was united in marriage to Charles McNair. The husband died in 1894. Of the six children born to this union, only one, Mrs. Clark, survives. Since the death of her husband Mrs. McNair had lived at the home of her daughter.

In spite of her advanced age Mrs. McNair was unusually active, and last Saturday was one of the visitors at the children's day exercises at Robinson park. During one of the scrambles for pennies during Mr. Williams' "copper trail" the aged woman secured one of the coppers, and prized it very highly as a souvenir.

Besides the daughter, two brothers survive. They are Michael Sites, of Joannoke, and I. Sites, of Clay City. There is also one sister, Mrs. Rachel Hill, of Nashville, Ind.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence and at 2 o'clock from the Calvary church. Rev. Byrner officiating. Interment at the Prairie Grove cemetery.

DRAKE.

Marjorie Drake, aged 5 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Drake, 1031 Edgewater avenue, died from suffocation Thursday afternoon when her head had become lodged between the side of the mattress and the covering on the bed. The tot was taking its daily nap when death occurred.

The mother had placed the babe on the bed about two hours before she found its lifeless body. Thinking it was unconscious and not dead, a doctor was called, but all efforts to revive the infant were fruitless. The mother was busily engaged in the back yard while the babe slept, but had stepped in to glance at it several times.

The father is district manager for the Deatur Motor Truck company. Surviving besides the parents is one sister, Virginia Drake.

SCHMIDT.

Martin Schmidt, aged forty-four years, a woodworker employed at the Pennsylvania shops, died at 2:30 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 1813 Hillside avenue. Death was due to complications. Mr. Schmidt was forced to quit work last May on account of illness. He had been bedfast for the last week.

The deceased was born November 3, 1867, in Germany. He came to America, and directly to Fort Wayne in 1881, and had worked for the Pennsylvania company since 1905. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and of the Brethrenlicher Unterstutzungs Verein.

Mrs. Schmidt died three years ago. The following children survive—Helen, Hilma, Elsie and Marguerite Schmidt. There is also one brother, and a sister—John Schmidt, of this city, and Mrs. Caroline Wehrhoff, of Chicago.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence and at 2:30 o'clock from St. Paul's Lutheran church, Rev. Jacob Miller officiating.

WRIGHT.

Luther Wright, aged 86 years, 9 months and 4 days, a carpenter, died Thursday afternoon at the county infirmary. Death was due to old age. The deceased has relatives in the east.

Funeral services Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Calhoun. Manlove and Bloom mortuary. Interment at Lindenwood.

MARLOW.

William Marlow, aged 3 months, died late this afternoon at the home of the parents on North Clinton street. Death was due to cholera infantum. The infant had been ill for several days.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Welling.—Funeral services for Henry Welling, of New Haven, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church at that place. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

REMAINS BEING BROUGHT HERE

George Knoll, Killed in Chicago, to Be Buried in This City.

LETTER TELLS FACTS

The funeral of George Knoll, killed in Chicago by an elevated train several weeks ago, and buried by an undertaker as an unidentified person, will take place from the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knoll, 2319 Miner street. The remains are being prepared to be brought to this city and will reach here within the next few days.

A letter from William Weber, brother-in-law of the deceased, to Mr. Weber's mother, Mrs. Katherine Weber, of West Main street, relates the facts concerning the discovery and identification of the body. The letter says that Mr. Weber and Rich Jackel, a friend, began investigating after Mr. and Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Knoll had returned to Chicago, following a visit here. They found the small item in a Chicago newspaper telling of an unidentified man's death, and after talking with the police and the coroner, went to the undertaking shop where the body had been taken. The man had been buried, but from the clothes taken off the body and the general description given and the picture taken, the identification was made complete. Mr. Weber experienced some difficulty in securing a permit to take the body from the grave for shipment to Fort Wayne.

As a matter of fact, you didn't expect Hayes to raid disorderly houses within his district now, did you?"

"I expected him to raid every disorderly house as to whose operations he could obtain evidence."

"You knew, didn't you, that disorderly houses had flourished for six months in Inspector Hayes' district; that these houses were operating every day and that they were not being raided?"

"Yes, I knew it. I knew that disorderly houses had been flourishing in that district for a year. But I presumed that Inspector Hayes was making every effort he could to close them up."

Commissioner Waldo was a refractory witness. His replies were long and couched in general terms and he had frequent encounters with Mr. Thacher.

The Direct Examination.

Commissioner Waldo testified that he called before him on Aug. 16 the various inspectors to ascertain which one of them, if any, had given an anonymous interview, published that day, to the effect that orders had been given by Waldo that no disorderly houses should be raided without his instructions.

"Inspector Hayes then told me that he understood his orders were not to raid disorderly houses without specific instructions from me," Commissioner Waldo continued.

"Had you ever given him such orders?" asked Terence Farley, assistant corporation counsel, representing the department.

"No, I gave him no orders other than the general instructions to observe peace and good order and to enforce all the laws. The inspector was personally responsible for the enforcement of the laws, including the excise laws and those against gambling in his district and to aid him and other inspectors we maintained a special squad of detectives."

"Did you ever instruct Inspector Hayes to refrain from obtaining evidence against disorderly houses?" Mr. Farley asked.

"He was never given any instructions of that character in any form whatsoever," Commissioner Waldo replied.

This ended the direct examination, and Thomas Thacher, counsel for Hayes, began the cross examination.

Shifting of Interest.

Interest in the Rosenthal case shifted today from the criminal courts building to police headquarters where Cornelius G. Hayes, deposed inspector, was to be placed on trial, charged with making false statements concerning Police Commissioner Waldo. District Attorney Whitman announced his intention of being present and there was much speculation as to whether Hayes, taking the stand, would "make good" any of the statements attributed to him, notably that he would reveal departmental secrets embarrassing to the commissioner.

Hayes Chief Witness.

Although Hayes denied in writing yesterday that he had said he could force Waldo's resignation within 21 hours, he had not repudiated other features of his recent conference with Mr. Whitman and he was still expected to be the chief witness at the "John Doe" inquiry into the police situation.

Technicalities promised to delay the start of the trial today. It was pointed out that Commissioner Waldo had temporarily reinstated Hayes yesterday to get from him his written denial and it was the contention of some lawyers that even this brief reinstatement wiped out the charges against the officer.

The district attorney's office expressed satisfaction today in the discovery of a Salvation Army lassie, who had rooms near the hotel Metropole and was an eye witness to the murder of Rosenthal. It is said that she can identify several if not all the men involved in the shooting and will make a valuable state's witness. Another witness, a member of the Elks club here, has been traced to Troy, N. Y., and an assistant district attorney was dispatched thither last night.

TO FINANCE THE LOCAL MOOSERS

Committee Will Be Appointed Tomorrow to Secure Funds.

CHAIRMAN HOUK ILL

Progressives of Allen county will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the headquarters in the Bank block, which were opened today, for the purpose of making final appointments in the county organization. A committee of finance will also be appointed at this time to map out some plan for securing funds with which to meet campaign expenses. An assistant chairman and a secretary will also be elected.

"The names of most of my committeemen have been listed," said County Chairman C. M. Preble today, after a conference with Lee J. Hartzell, former republican county chairman, and Col. D. N. Foster, who acted as provisional chairman of the progressives until last Saturday.

"There are still a few vacancies, but these will either be filled this afternoon or at the meeting tomorrow afternoon. There are a couple of townships hard to reach, and these have been left until last."

It is understood that the progressive organization means to wait until all republican committeemen have had ample opportunity to withdraw from the party. Mr. Preble and others believe that more resignations will follow tomorrow, and say that the statements made by the republican leaders will be the cause of it. The republicans say they either want the committeemen to say they are not going to become members of the new party, or else make open declaration immediately and get out of the party, so that organization work can go on. It is understood that the leaders intend asking the known progressives on the committee to resign, so that Taft republicans can be appointed to their places.

Two More Resign.

There are now two more vacancies on the republican central committee. Dr. C. M. Goheen, of the Ninth ward, and Samuel Kelker, of the Second ward, have submitted their resignations and will become actively identified with the Bull Moose organization. The resignations of these men leaves five vacancies for Republican County Chairman Houk to fill.

Mr. Houk was ill today, suffering from a severe cold, and made no attempt to fill the places made vacant in his committee.

We will sell over 200 men's blue, black and staple suits tomorrow at half-price. Read "ad" on page five. Patterson-Fletcher Co.

Emil Weibbe has returned from Petoskey, where he spent the last three weeks in an effort to secure relief from hay fever.

HALF CARLOAD OF BEER WAS SEIZED

Officers at Marion Confiscated Wet Goods Consigned to Residents of City.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 6.—Half a carload of beer consigned to the local agent of the Terre Haute Brewing company was confiscated by the police in the Clover Leaf railway yards here and locked up. The beer was consigned to a number of Marion people. George Koehler, agent for the Terre Haute Brewing company, and G. W. McKown, agent for the Clover Leaf railway, protested against confiscating the beer under a search warrant and will test the case of the police. While no charge has been filed against the brewing company the police say they will charge violation of the liquor laws, as those to whom the beer was consigned say they had given no orders to the brewing company.

HUSBAND DESERTED HOME.

Injury in a Wreck Resulted in Wrecking His Mind.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 6.—Expressing the belief that her husband is demented owing to nervous shock occasioned by the wreck of two Marion, Bluffton & Eastern traction cars, July 7, Mrs. Bell Patterson, wife of William H. Patterson, has appealed to the police in an effort to find her husband. Patterson is a musician in the Second regiment band, and is collector for an insurance company. He escaped injury in the wreck by jumping, but has been very nervous since the accident.

Patterson disappeared from his home, leaving his wife and four small children, last Sunday night.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY.

Plymouth, Ind., Sept. 6.—Albert Beldon dropped dead Thursday in the cigar store of Inks & Bennett, on Michigan street. He was standing at the counter and remarked to Mr. Inks that he had taken so many headache powders he didn't know what he was about. The next moment he threw up his hands, a half-expressed word escaped his lips, and he fell dead on the floor. The deceased was 45 years of age.

DEATH OF WAR VETERAN.

Huntington, Ind., Sept. 6.—Israel Kaylor, a pioneer resident of Clear Creek township and prominently known as a war veteran, died Thursday at the Marion Soldiers' home, where he went three weeks ago for medical treatment. He had been in failing health a couple years with Bright's disease.

ETNA'S SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.

Columbia City, Ind., Sept. 6.—Fred E. Conkling, of this city, has been given the principalship of the Etna high school. Miss Elsie Shuster will teach the 7th and 8th grades, Miss Beulah Martindale the 4th, 5th and 6th grades and Miss Mabel Jellison the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades. The schools open Sept. 16.

MAN AND THE SOIL.

Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, author of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, says "why does not the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates. He puts back in phosphate what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor, or by ill-health induced by some chronic disease." Further, he says, "the great value of my Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its vitalizing power. It gives strength to the stomach and purity to the blood. It is like the phosphates which supply nature with the substances that build up the crops. The far-reaching action of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effect on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach. A bilious spell is simply the result of an effort made by the liver to catch up when over-worked and exhausted. I have found the 'Discovery' to be unsurpassed as a liver regulator and rich blood-maker."

Miss Lottie Knisely of Perth, Kansas, says: "I will here add my testimony of the effectiveness of your remedy upon myself. I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more. Doctored with three different doctors besides taking numerous kinds of so-called 'stomach cures' but received no permanent relief. I was run down, could not sleep at night with the pain in my chest, caused by gas on the stomach. Was weak, could eat scarcely anything although I was hungry nearly all the time. About one year and a half ago I began taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and after having taken several bottles am nearly cured of stomach trouble. Can now eat without distress and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I thank you for your remedy and wish you all success in your good work."

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a few moments your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant—No falling hair or Dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

DECATUR NEWS.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 6.—Herman Yager is home from Indianapolis, where he was looking after matters relative to the big home coming week here in October.

Dick Burrell, formerly of this city, and for several years a resident of Rochester, Ind., has moved his family back to Decatur.

Samuel Kunkle, of Monmouth, and the oldest resident in Adams county, being ninety-two years old last August, was in the city yesterday looking up friends and attending to some business affairs.

Albert Acker has returned from a several days' business trip to Bluffton. Mrs. Abe Sprunger and daughter, Della, of Berne, who visited here with the Henry Sprunger family, left today for their home.

Paul Baumbartner is home from Geneva, where business occupied attention during the day. Architect Oscar Hoffman, who was at Portland today, returned home this afternoon.

Noah Mangold will return this evening from Portland, where he had been several days on business.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret Morris, for years a resident of Pleasant Mills, this county, and whose death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Al Fritstoe, at Rochester, Ind., was shipped to this city late Thursday afternoon and taken to her former home, where burial occurred today.

Will Dowling is suffering greatly from a large gash in the right arm, which he received while working at the hardware stand of Schaub & Dowling.

Harold Wilcox, of Iron Mountain, Mich., will arrive in the city the fore part of next week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilcox.

F. H. Hubbard, manager of the beet sugar factory, has gone to Indianapolis to look after the disposing of the output of the plant upon the completion in a few weeks.

Mrs. Rose Weimert, of Payne, Ohio, who visited here with relatives for a few days, left today for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Archer and two sons are home from Kalamazoo, Mich., where they attended a family reunion Monday.

There was much excitement at Monroe yesterday morning when Mrs. William Graham, of this city, mother of L. A. Graham, of Decatur, was struck by the engine of the southbound passenger train in the G. E. & I. railroad. In the fall Mrs. Graham struck her head on the sharp iron of the track and cut a big gash in the right side of her head, but beyond the shock and prostration, suffered no serious injury.

Dr. Parrish, of Monroe, was named by the county commissioners to serve as county physician during the coming year.

Great trouble exists in the public schools owing to the crowded condition of several rooms. In the central building the second and third grades are so large that at present only a half day's session can be held. This will be cared for during the next few days, but as it is, much inconvenience exists.

The trial of Willard, the well known citizen just east of the city, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill Henry Kaiper, by shooting, has been set for September 17.

MARRIED FORTY-SEVEN YEARS.

Wabash, Ind., Sept. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. David C. Ridenour, residing south of the city, were awarded the prize of $3 by Clark Weesner for being the oldest married couple born in Wabash county who were present at the picnic of the old settlers at the city park. They were married in 1868. The oldest continuous resident of Wabash county present was Mrs. Emily M. Hale Wellman, of Urbana, aged 77 years.

STOMACH UPSET? SOUR? "CASCARETS"

Sluggish bowels cause gases, sourness and food fermentation.

That awful soreness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets—they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascarets tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet, clear and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Auburn's new band, known as the "Boosters' Band," made its initial appearance Tuesday evening when they went to Hudson and Ashley to advertise the Free Fall Festival to be held in this city October 1 to 5. The musicians made the trip in nine autos and a most enjoyable trip it proved to be. Their music was heartily received by the Hudson-Ashley people, who highly complimented them on their new band and high-class music. After a few short speeches in regard to their mission there, they started home and had not gone far when the surprise of the evening was sprung. The driver seemed to be going a different route but they soon discovered he was following instructions to stop at the Camp home for "feed," and as there were no objections forthcoming he did so. Upon their arrival they were met by about twenty Auburn people and a good old-fashioned time followed. After a musical program they all proceeded to the diningroom of the Camp home, where about sixty hungry people were fed.

PIERCETON HOME-COMING.

Piercetown, Ind., Sept. 6.—Wednesday and Thursday were great days at Piercetown, the occasion being the annual home coming and thousands visited the town. There were many attractions, among them being an exhibition of hemp, showing how the crop is raised, harvested and prepared for market. There were several hundred acres of hemp grown in the vicinity of Piercetown this year.

Girl Tells Frightful Tale of Conditions at West Hammond.

ROBBERY AS MOTIVE

Chicago, Sept. 6.—A tale of civic intrigue and murder rivaling a combination of the horrors of the Belle Gunness "murder farm" and the recent New York police graft scandals was unfolded yesterday by "Frankie" Ford, an inmate of Henry Foss' dive in West Hammond.

Unfeeling she told how the "black bottle" had caused no less than a dozen persons to drop off into eternity, an electric piano jangling ragtime as their death song and liquor and drug crazed women as their companions. Robbery was the motive.

"The cops' knew about it, but they were getting 'theirs' so they didn't squeal," the girl told Coroner Peter Hoffman, Assistant Chief of Police Schuetzler and Miss Virginia Brooks, who were present to hear her confession.

Girl's Condition Critical.

An hour after she had told her wild and inhuman story, the girl collapsed. She is in a critical condition in the hospital at the bedside. To prevent her being released by the divekeepers on a writ of habeas corpus and spirited away she is under arrest, charged with being an accessory to the murder of John Messmaker, who, she says, died after drinking from the "black bottle" while in her company in Aug. 13.

To corroborate the eighty-page confession of the girl, the police searched last night for "Ada Vanderbilt," a former cook in the Foss dive; "Kittie Clark," who was said to be at Gary, Ind., with an employee of the Steel corporation, and another woman known only as "Annie." Six warrants were to be sworn out against divekeepers, charging complicity in the "black bottle" murders.

Those who heard the girl's story were pledged to secrecy by Coroner Hoffman, until it can be thoroughly investigated. State's Attorney Wayman took a hand in the case after the confession had been shown him and will take the case before the September grand jury.

"All I can say is that such a wild and inhuman story of murder, graft and civic dirtiness has never been heard before," was all Miss Brooks would say last night. "Much of the girl's story has been corroborated."

Makes Lengthy Statement.

The Ford girl, who was arrested Wednesday night by police after a two weeks' hunt by Miss Brooks, was first taken to Assistant Chief Schuetzler's office and then smuggled in the automobile of Mrs. Joan F. Pass, prominent suffragist and a friend of Miss Brooks, to the home of M. W. Barden, 557 Milwaukee avenue, a detective on the assistant chief's staff. There she told her eighty-page story.

After making the lengthy statement

CATFISH IN WATER SUPPLY.

Mt. Holly (N. J.) Consumers May Get Free Meals.

Mount Holly, N. J., Sept. 6.—"Get a bite or nibble in your dishpan today!" was a question asked of many housewives in Mount Holly after it had become known that during the morning a fire hydrant on Garden street had emitted two catfish, one about seven inches long. During the last few years, while Mount Holly's water has so frequently been polluted, muddy and generally rank and otherwise objectionable, consumers have expected to find almost anything coming from their taps, but they did not expect the company to ring in an aquarium as a special attraction. Of course, consumers are angry, but they will probably feel relieved after they learn that the company is not going to charge anything extra for meals.

The Work of the Park Board.

That there has been criticism in some quarters, though not especially of recent date, regarding the plans of the Fort Wayne board of park commissioners because it was feared that the comprehensive work in prospect for Fort Wayne might involve a too heavy burden of taxation, is recalled by its striking similarity to a condition now existing in Indianapolis. Speaking before the ways and means committee of the Commercial club of that city a day or two ago, Dr. Henry Jameson, president of the Indianapolis park board, asserted that the people of Indianapolis do not understand the comprehensive scheme outlined for the city's boulevard and park system, and that there is a lack of appreciation of the park board's efforts.

"There is a disposition," said Dr. Jameson, "to regard park development as simply something ornate. I wish to say to every taxpayer that park development means more than that to a city. It furnishes your playground, your open spaces, furnishes the esthetic side of the city, because anything that is done right is esthetic. Utilitarianism is one of the best elements in building. The utilitarian end of our system and the question of beautification are the real problems at this time."

No one save those in close touch with it can have any adequate comprehension of the patriotic and unselfish labor of the members of the Fort Wayne park board are devoting to the effort to make Fort Wayne a more sightly and a more healthy city. The passing years, with their development of the work that is scarcely well started, will not fail to bring an increasing appreciation of this really invaluable public service.

State Superintendent Greathouse is to be commended for declining to have anything to do with the effort to obtain contributions to the Wilson campaign fund from the teachers of Indiana. Mr. Greathouse is warmly supporting Governor Wilson, as is eminently right and proper for him to do, and Governor Wilson's prominence as an educator will doubtless attract much support, financial and otherwise, to his candidacy from the ranks of the teachers. But Superintendent Greathouse is taking the correct course in keeping the administration of Indiana school affairs entirely out of politics.

The position as superintendent of the Indiana school for feeble-minded youth, aside from the vast responsibility it carries, requires qualifications and ability of a peculiar type, and the selection of a successor to the late Albert E. Carroll will not be an easy task, for the problems he must face are unusual from the very character of the institution. The board of trustees is undoubtedly acting with wisdom in making no selection until the field has been canvassed thoroughly.

Governmental economy must have become a rather frantic sort of fad down in Decatur county, where, in order to reduce the tax levy the county councilmen not only lopped off on expenditures wherever possible, but as a finale voted to donate their own salary to the county. The latter action at least gives the performance the stamp of genuineness.

Since Aaron S. Watkins has been officially notified of his nomination for vice president on the prohibition ticket, it would appear that the glad news has now been broken to all the candidates and they can proceed safely with the harvesting of the vote crop.

If you haven't registered as yet, you'll have to hurry.

PLACING THE MONEY.

(Kansas City Star.)

Having some definite thing to save for is the best aid to saving.

It looks a simple proposition that the way to save money is not to spend it. But there is a psychology to thrift. Not many persons have the miserly instinct. Even the wholly commendable instinct of providing for a rainy day is not a general possession. But if one picks out a particular "rainy day," or some specific shelter from the "rain," it helps mightily.

The average family requires this stimulus to saving.

Suppose, for example, that you make up your mind to buy a home. Such a definite object in view not only will help you to be economical, but it will make your economies appear very meritorious in the eyes of your friends. Is your wife doing her own housework for a reason? If you have no known reason for saving, you may be censured by your neighbors. You probably console yourself, but if you are economizing for a time to buy a home you gain the footing in self-esteem and in the estimation of others that the pioneers had—those whose "abstinences" were really praiseworthy and who acquired competence for later leisure.

"Let me have $5, old man," some grasshopper asks of you, the ant. You are a "tightwad" if you refuse, having money for which you have no defined goal. But if you can say, "Sorry, my boy, but I'm scrimping to pay on my house," the return is likely to be one of envious congratulation.

Of course, there may be a danger that one will carry his definite thrift to the point of stinginess, of denial of needed pleasures to himself and his family, to the extreme of neglecting regard for the welfare of others in the immersion of the one "rainy day" pursuit. But that is not a very imminent danger to the ordinary American family. The danger is on the other side—the side of improvidence, of not having a place for the dimes and dollars and so of letting somebody else put them away.

SURGICAL REFORM FAILED.

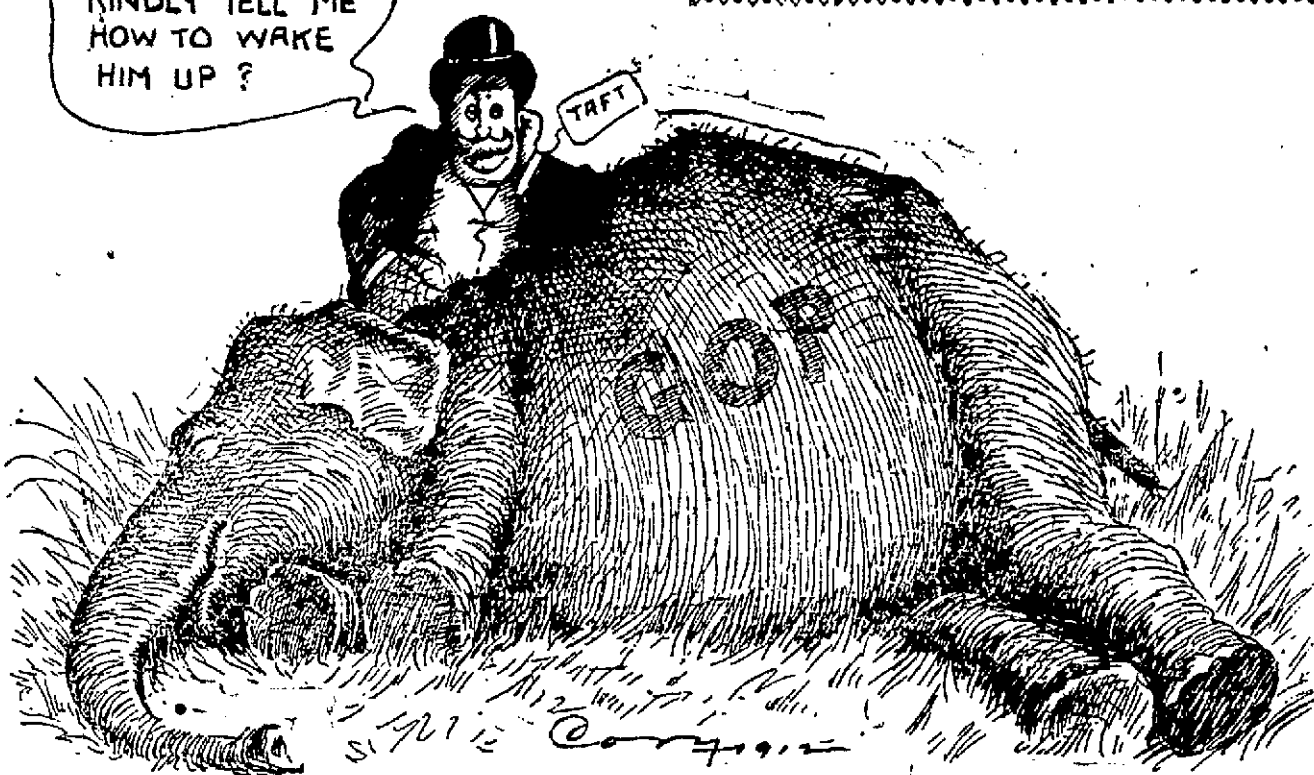

(Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

The bright prospect of the cure of moral defects by surgery is sadly dimmed by the news that the Milwaukee young man operated on to cure the vice of habitual burglary has relapsed.

He was taken out of the Green Bay prison on the testimony of surgeons that he was irretrievably cured of the vice of burglary. The bone was removed, but he committed another burglary. This the surgeons charged to the poor adjustment of the silver plate inserted to replace the bone. With a readjustment of the plate the young man walked the paths of rectitude for a year, and was then sent to the penitentiary for five years for stealing from his employers.

Of course it is still possible to claim that such a subject belongs to a hospital rather than a prison. The old pressure may have created a morbid

THE BUSINESS SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT FOR INDIANA CITIES

AN IMPROVED PLAN FOR CITY GOVERNMENT
NON-PARTISAN CONTROL BY THE PEOPLE

By the Publicity Committee, Business System of Government State Organization.

Patriotism.

Patriotism of the finest type may be found in the home, in the school, in the workshop, in the office, in the courts, in the halls of legislation—everywhere when the object sought is upliftment. The mother who teaches her children consideration for the rights of others; the father who sacrifices his own comfort and gratification that his boys and girls shall have the best equipment for usefulness; the man of affairs who devotes a portion of his time and means for the general welfare; the philanthropist who strives to raise the fallen and to succor the needy; the man or woman who shares advantages for culture and enjoyment with those less fortunate—all who in any way are striving to add to the sum total of human happiness and upliftment and prosperity, are serving their country and may be ranked as patriots.

It is truly grand and noble to rally about our country's glorious standard when calamity threatens from within or without, but many have done this who have not been equally alert as good citizens. It is easier to serve one's country when the drums beat and the trumpets blare, and the blood courses swiftly because of a sense of oppression or injustice, than it is to live faithfully and patiently the quiet paths of peace.

There are various kinds of patriotism, and the man (or the woman) who gives to his community the best service of which he is capable, in the position wherein he is placed, may well be designated as "patriotic."

GRASS MOLD KILLS HORSES.

Impure Pastures Cause Loss to Breeders in Ness County, Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 6.—The disease that has proved fatal to 200 head of horses and from which 250 head are sick in Ness county, Kansas, is attributed by Dr. A. T. Kinsley, of the Kansas City Veterinary college, to a mold growing on the grass roots. Dr. Kinsley has just returned from that region where, in company with two representatives from the Kansas State Agricultural college, he went to investigate the disease. Death is due, according to Dr. Kinsley, not to the effects of eating moldy grass, which causes a temporary paralysis of the throat and a congestion of the brain, but to the effects of medicine given when the animal is in a weakened condition. Specimens of the mold were taken by Dr. F. Haslin, of Manhattan, for experiment.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the New Drug.

An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new drug, othine—double strength—which is so uniformly successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Meyer Bros. Co. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first night's use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. It is absolutely harmless, and cannot injure the most tender skin.

Be sure to ask Meyer Bros. Co. for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.

WHITLEY'S TAX LEVY.

Columbia City, Ind., Sept. 6.—The tax levy for the county for the coming year, according to the figures passed upon by the council and handed out by the county auditor, has increased two cents on the hundred dollars over that of last year, and the raise is attributed to some necessary repairs that have been made about the court house, the county farm and the heating plant, etc.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

The Work of the Park Board.

That there has been criticism in some quarters, though not especially of recent date, regarding the plans of the Fort Wayne board of park commissioners because it was feared that the comprehensive work in prospect for Fort Wayne might involve a too heavy burden of taxation, is recalled by its striking similarity to a condition now existing in Indianapolis. Speaking before the ways and means committee of the Commercial club of that city a day or two ago, Dr. Henry Jameson, president of the Indianapolis park board, asserted that the people of Indianapolis do not understand the comprehensive scheme outlined for the city's boulevard and park system, and that there is a lack of appreciation of the park board's efforts.

"There is a disposition," said Dr. Jameson, "to regard park development as simply something ornate. I wish to say to every taxpayer that park development means more than that to a city. It furnishes your playground, your open spaces, furnishes the esthetic side of the city, because anything that is done right is esthetic. Utilitarianism is one of the best elements in building. The utilitarian end of our system and the question of beautification are the real problems at this time."

No one save those in close touch with it can have any adequate comprehension of the patriotic and unselfish labor the members of the Fort Wayne park board are devoting to the effort to make Fort Wayne a more sightly and a more healthy city. The passing years, with their development of the work that is scarcely well started, will not fail to bring an increasing appreciation of this really invaluable public service.

State Superintendent Greathouse is to be commended for declining to have anything to do with the effort to obtain contributions to the Wilson campaign fund from the teachers of Indiana. Mr. Greathouse is warmly supporting Governor Wilson, as is eminently right and proper for him to do, and Governor Wilson's prominence as an educator will doubtless attract much support, financial and otherwise, to his candidacy from the ranks of the teachers. But Superintendent Greathouse is taking the correct course in keeping the administration of Indiana school affairs entirely out of politics.

The position as superintendent of the Indiana school for feeble-minded youth, aside from the vast responsibility it carries, requires qualifications and ability of a peculiar type, and the selection of a successor to the late Albert E. Carroll will not be an easy task, for the problems he must face are unusual from the very character of the institution. The board of trustees is undoubtedly acting with wisdom in making no selection until the field has been canvassed thoroughly.

Governmental economy must have become a rather frantic sort of fad down in Decatur county, where, in order to reduce the tax levy the county councilmen not only lopped off on expenditures wherever possible, but as a finale voted to donate their own salary to the county. The latter action at least gives the performance the stamp of genuineness.

Since Aaron S. Watkins has been officially notified of his nomination for vice president on the prohibition ticket, it would appear that the glad news has now been broken to all the candidates and they can proceed safely with the harvesting of the vote crop.

If you haven't registered as yet, you'll have to hurry.

PLACING THE MONEY.

(Kansas City Star.)

Having some definite thing to save for is the best aid to saving.

It looks a simple proposition that the way to save money is not to spend it. But there is a psychology to thrift. Not many persons have the miserly instinct. Even the wholly commendable instinct of providing laying-by for a rainy day is not a general possession. But if one picks out a particular "rainy day," or some specific shelter from the "rain," it helps mightily.

The average family requires this stimulus to saving.

Suppose, for example, that you make up your mind to buy a home. Such a definite object in view not only will help you to be economical, but it will make your economies appear very meritorious in the eyes of your friends. Is your wife doing her own housework for a reason? If you have no known reason for saving, you may be censured by your neighbors. You probably censure yourself. But if you are economizing for a time to buy a home, you gain the footing in self-esteem and in the estimation of others that the pioneers had. These "abstinences" were really praiseworthy and who acquired competence for later leisure.

"Let me have $3.00, old man," some grasshopper asks of you, the ant. You are a "tightwad" if you refuse, having money for which you have no defined goal. But if you can say, "Sorry, my boy, but I'm scrimping to pay on my house," the return is likely to be one of envious congratulation.

Of course, there may be a danger that one will carry his definite thrift to the point of stinginess, of denial of needed pleasures to himself and his family, to the extreme of neglecting regard for the welfare of others in the immersion of the one "rainy day" pursuit. But that is not a very imminent danger to the ordinary American family. The danger is on the other side—the side of improvidence, of not having a place for the dimes and dollars and so of letting somebody else put them away.

Should Study Shakespeare.

Dr. Armstrong delivered the second and last address of the forenoon, his subject being "Literature." There are two great books, he said, which ought to be studied by the teacher. One is the Bible, which is the greatest of books. No better love story has ever been written than that in the Bible book of Esther. The Bible is the best book of law ever penned. It is history, poetry and philosophy. It is rich in knowledge and, even from a literary standpoint, ought to be given a close study.

Dr. Armstrong gave much of the time of his address to a discussion of the literary merits of the books of Shakespeare, which, he said, were the finest in literature. His characters are all great, have been made great by him. They are better known than most of the great kings and statesmen of the world and the delineation of their characters by Shakespeare has given the world a portrayal of human conduct and thought that has been valuable to a great degree. The words he has put in their mouths have become gems of literature.

Afternoon Session.

At the session of the institute this afternoon Dr. Armstrong is programmed to speak again on "Literature." The theme of Dr. Albert is "America's Greatest Problem."

During the afternoon Superintendent Felger called the attention of the teachers to the preliminary institutes to be held. One is held tomorrow, that of Adams, St. Joseph, Washington and Wayne townships at the Elektron building in this city. The others are as follows:

Aboite, El River, Lafayette, Lake, Perry and Pleasant townships, Monday, Sept. 9, at assembly room of the court house, Fort Wayne.

Cedar Creek, Maumee, Milan, Springfield and Scipio townships, at Harlan, Wednesday, Sept. 11.

Jackson, Jefferson, Madison, Marion and Monroe townships, at Elektron building, Fort Wayne.

Superintendent Felger spoke very highly of the loyalty of the teachers to the institute this year, which, he said, was the best ever held. He also paid a high compliment to the institute speakers. Both are eminent college men and well known, having been here at former institutes. Dr. Albert is the professor of geography in the state normal school at Bloomsburg, Pa. Dr. Armstrong is professor of literature in the West Virginia state normal school at Morgantown, W. Va.

Prof. Wm. Miles, the supervisor of music in the city schools, contributed much to the interest of the institute by his conduct of the musical program.

No republican clerks were on hand in the Sixth or Nineteenth precincts, and others were selected. Those who have talked with the clerks state that it is too hard a task for what they get out of it. All of the democratic clerks reported on schedule time, and will keep the polls open just as long as they can according to law.

The progressives are not paying much attention to the matter of registration, being content with what few stragglers take time enough to sign their names to the registration blanks. The law is more fully understood now than it was at the first period in May, and therefore the work moved along smoothly in all voting places.

It was the opinion of registration officials that the later hours of the day would bring out a heavier proportion of the unregistered city vote.

Weimer-Neustadt and Wadhofen, Austria, have just given the women taxpayers the ballot, making voting compulsory for women as well as men. The legislature of Manitoba recently permitted women to practice law. The legislature of Georgia only a few days later defeated a similar amendment.

LONGEVITY DUE TO SIMPLE DIET

"No Fancy Foods and Daily Walk of Mile," Says Centenarian.

HAD EVENTFUL LIFE

Cleveland, Sept. 8.—William C. Clark has formulated a system of living which he asserts has enabled him to retain his mental and physical faculties for more than a century. He recently observed his one hundred and first birthday anniversary at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Malcolm, No. 7215 Linwood avenue N. E.

Moderation in eating is Mr. Clark's primary rule; the one by which he accounts for his longevity. Plain food—no pastries—comprises his diet. He was practicing the theories of Horace Fletcher years before Fletcher came into the limelight by his advocacy of the simple diet. Mr. Clark does not use alcoholic liquor.

"I once used tobacco," he said, "but I became disgusted with the habit when I came to this country. I am thankful now that I gave it up."

When weather conditions permit he takes a walk of a mile or more every day. In spite of his age he can go about alone. The public square, however, he declares, is the most dangerous place he has ever seen.

Mr. Clark was born near London, England, in 1811, when the reign of George III was drawing to a close. Six English sovereigns have ruled in the course of his life. None of the plagues and famines of old age exist to him. Last week at his centennial birthday celebration, to show that he was not superannuated, in the strict sense of the term, he sang the bass part in a quartet that had gathered at his daughter's home.

Mr. Clark has had an eventful life. In early youth he was apprenticed to a firm of oyster dredgers. Following this occupation, he spent a number of years in the merchant service and has touched at almost every port on the European coast.

Once in a storm off the coast of Greenland he feared that his career was to be a short one. His ship had taken on a cargo at a Russian port and on the return voyage had been driven far up into the Arctic ocean. Sitting by a window at his daughter's home the old man's eyes sparkled as he told of the hardships that he underwent for three weeks before the ship had passed out of the Arctic region.

Coming to this country in 1863, Mr. Clark settled on a farm in Ashland county. Here his life was comparatively uneventful. Twelve children went forth from his home. Six of them are living today. Eight years ago his wife died and now Mr. Clark spends his time at the homes of his children.

The number of meals given to school children in England last year was 16, 872,000. The cost was $133,000, of which only $1,375 was recovered from parents as voluntary contributions.

Monday morning, Sept. 9, is not too late to enter the new classes now being formed at the International Business College.

SEEK REMAINING SEA ELEPHANTS

Only Ten Left Have Reported Value of Nearly $5,000 Each.

ARE IN LONE HERD

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 8.—The power schooner Flyer, owned by C. B. Linton, is on a cruise which has for its purpose the capture of the only herd of sea elephants known to be in existence. There are said to be ten sea elephants in the band. They have a value of about $5,000 each and rendezvous on an island believed to be about 300 miles south of San Diego.

The expedition was organized, so it was announced, for the purpose of exploring the uninhabited portion of the coast of Lower California, the west coast of Mexico and the islands along the coast as far as Cedros Island.

Provisions and fuel for a four-months' trip were taken and in addition the craft carried a full equipment of arms, traps and other material necessary for the capture or killing of such specimens of animal and bird life as may be encountered. These will be turned over to the Exposition Park museum of Los Angeles, but the one great prize which the party seeks to get is the $50,000 herd of sea elephants.

The existence of the sea elephants was discovered by a party of government scientists aboard the Albatross early last year. At that time two of the sea elephants were killed and five captured alive.

The government scientists when here would not give out any information as to the island where the remaining ten sea elephants of the herd were left, but it is said on good authority that Captain Linton and his party had secured this information, and as a result the present expedition was organized. Geo. H. Child is in command of the Flyer. The other members of the party are Geo. W. Willett, an ornithologist; H. N. Lowe, marine scientist; William McCluskey, of the state museum, of Los Angeles; Ralph Johnson, Edward Bellinger, Paul McCreary and C. B. Linton.

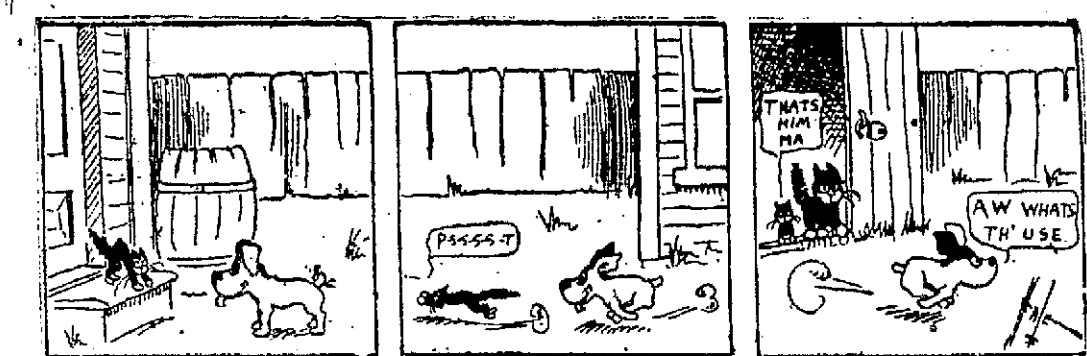

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Willson are going to Cleveland tomorrow to visit their son, Ralph. Mr. Willson will remain a fortnight and Mrs. Willson will remain a month and then go on to Boston, if she continues well enough.

Knights and Ladies of Security will have an open and social meeting tonight in the hall over the Star theater, which is planned to afford all members much enjoyment.

Miss Katherine Eckart, of West Williams street, is visiting in Indianapolis with friends. Mrs. Clyde R. Brookwater and daughter, Velma, have returned from Akron, Ohio, where they visited friends. Rev. Dr. Samuel Wagners has returned from Elmsburg, Pa., where he takes his summer outings.

Brett-Shoub.

Miss Gladys Shoub and Mr. Jesse Thompson Brett were married on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Shoub, 2231 Broadway, by Rev. D. H. Guild, pastor of the First M. E. church. It was a pretty bridal party that gathered in the parlor in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends. The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Oberlin, of Butler, who acted as flower girl, a sister of the bride, Miss Hazel Shoub, who was maid of honor, and the Misses Rosamond Tonkel and Elsie Knapp, who were bridesmaids. Mr. Lynn Shoub was the groom's attendant. The bride looked very sweet and pretty in a dainty gown of white crepe de meteor, hung over white satin. The bride wore a veil fashioned in cap effect for the head and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Tonkel wore a white crepe de chine made over yellow and she held a bouquet of marguerites. Miss Knapp wore a white embroidered net over pink and her flowers were pink roses. The maid of honor was gowned beautifully in an embroidered white chiffon made over pale green satin. Her flowers were cream snapdragon blossoms. Miss Alice Brett, a sister of the groom, played the wedding music. Before the ceremony Miss Brett sang "Constancy" and on the entrance of the bride party she played the Mendelssohn wedding march. Refreshments were served after congratulations had been extended to the bridal couple. Many of the guests were young people of the First M. E. church of which the bride is an active member who is held in high regard. Guests from away were Mrs. C. B. Oberlin and daughter, Mildred, of Butler; Miss Alice Brett and Mr. Lewis Brett, of Wabash. The bridegroom formerly lived in Wabash. He is an excellent young man and is employed as a clerk with the firm of Mossman & Yarnelle.

Milady's Toilet Table

By Mme. D'Mille.

"When occasion demands quick hair-dressing nothing is finer than a dry shampoo, made by mixing four ounces of orris root with a package of therax. Sit a little over the head, brush out, and your scalp is clean and your hair beautifully lustrous, light, wavy and easy to do up."

"Ladies troubled with 'fuzzy growths' are delighted to learn that detatone removes hair without pain or injury. Make a paste with detatone and water, spread it on the hairs, let remain for a few minutes, then remove and wash surface."

"Pina pyroxin applied to eyebrows with finger-tips causes them to grow thick and beautiful, and brushing will train them into well-formed arches. Eyelashes come in long and silken if pyroxin is applied to the roots."

"If your face is sunburned, spotted or muddy-looking, apply in the morning a beautifying lotion made by dissolving an original package of migrations in a half-pint of witchhazel. This treatment replaces powder. It will 'hold' all day, will not rub off or show, and makes the skin soft, smooth and satiny."

RICH WOMAN MAKES AND WEARS THIS TWO-DOLLAR GOWN—COULD YOU?

TWO VIEWS OF MRS. PUTNAM'S $2.00 GOWN.

This gown is made in one piece, of blue, brocaded raw silk and only cost $2, according to Mrs. Ninan Wilcox Putnam, wife of the rich publisher of New York, who made it and wears it.

"The curse of civilization is the parasitic woman," says Mrs. Putnam, "and the adoption of the simple, cheap and beautiful garment will give women a freedom that they have not had since women were the governing power in the primitive world."

To demonstrate how simple it is to make such a gown as seen, she takes a piece of cloth 32 inches wide, just double the length from the neck to the instep, sews up the sides, makes a slip just large enough for the head and arms to go through, hems up the bottom, and the dress is finished and ready to wear. As it meets with all the requirements of beauty, economy and hygiene, it suits her as well as any of the higher priced gowns she has in her wardrobe.

Young Couple Surprise Relatives by Marrying in Michigan.

Mr. Earl B. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, of 421 High street, was married in Hillsdale, Mich., on Aug. 31st to Miss Effie Cox, of Dixon, O., who had been working for the Fort Wayne Electric company for some time. The young couple made no previous announcement of their plans but wrote their relatives immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Miller received word of the marriage several days afterwards and the bride and groom arrived home and were welcomed by the groom's parents with whom they will make their home for the present. The bridegroom is a carpenter.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE.

Strong Play Shown at Popular Prices at the Majestic Today.

Although presented at popular prices "The Lion and the Mouse" seen at the Majestic yesterday and again today, has not deteriorated in interest and possesses the same fascinating and breathless interest for an audience that it did the first year it was produced. A very good cast is to be seen and the performance and setting are up to former standards. Since this remarkable work of Charles Klein was first seen here incidents have occurred which makes the return of the drama a matter of still keener interest. When the play was first produced the insurance scandals were just reaching the public nostrils. Then came the action against trusts and railroads and still later the Lorimer scandal. Now the public at large has a still less favorable regard for leaders of high finance and this play becomes still more interesting.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Society to See "The Spring Maid" Saturday, Matinee and Night.

Society has made an event of the engagement of "The Spring Maid" during the record breaking tours of Werba and Luescher's joyous operetta. The coming appearance of this delightful organization here at the Majestic theater on Saturday, matinee and night, will be one of the social events of the theatrical season.

When "The Spring Maid" played its year long engagement in New York, Gotham's "four hundred" crowded the theater at every performance. All winter the automobiles and carriages were lined up for blocks, reaching from the Liberty to the Hudson river after the performance. This charming opera appeals to the little folks as well as to grown ups and during the New York season children's matinees became the vogue. Mrs. George Gould, Mrs. Vanderbilt, the Astors and other society leaders not only attended the opera repeatedly at night, but arranged numerous matinee parties for their children and little guests during the season.

George P. Murphy in the Bubbling Musical Comedy, "Let George Do It."

Back among us once again and in real flesh and blood, comes our comic friend, "Let George Do It," with George P. Murphy in the leading role, who like the proverbial lecturer, "needs no introduction." So say the crowds that will pack the Majestic theater Monday evening, when they laugh for the second time, possibly the third time, through two and a half hours of that inimitable burlesque, which appears for the second time in Fort Wayne.

Bubbling, gushing nonsense and fun with catchy whistling music and classy dancing, its pretty and beautifully costumed chorus—all good for a full undiluted, wholesome, enjoyable evening, with many a hearty laugh sprinkled throughout.

"Get Rich Quick Wallingford." Geo. M. Cohan's "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" will be the offering at the Majestic theater on Tuesday evening.

No play produced in recent seasons has received the stamp of unqualified public approval with the convincing certainty that is evidenced in the applause and appreciation of amusement seekers as they view the unfolding of the story that is woven around J. Rufus Wallingford's promotion of shady financial deals. The methods he pursues and the avidity of the gullible, yet hard to convince speculators, who, while they would like to get something like seventy-five per cent. returns on their investments, yet hesitate to take a chance, is the story of many men of today, who seek to acquire wealth by a surreptitious route. Jack Webster, as Wallingford, Jas. Sweeney as Blackie Daw, John G. Sparks as Dempsey, D. E. Clark as the energetic reporter, Milton B. Pollock as the bus driver, J. C. Mack as the mayor, A. V. Gibson as the ex-judge, Marguerite Wolf as the stenographer, Fauchon Campbell as the head waitress, Calvin Tibbet as the richest man in town, and J. F. Mackenzie as the Pinkerton detective succeed so definitely in typifying and visualizing the characters that the author has drawn as to make them real, everyday people with an earnest purpose in life far removed from play acting.

IN THE EYE OF THE FIERY VOLCANO AT KODIAK, U. S. A.

ABOVE, A HOUSE AT KODIAK PARTIALLY BURIED UNDER VOLCANIC DUST; BELOW, PART OF THE REFUGEES ON BOARD THE REVENUE CUTTER MANNING.

The volcanic storm kept up all day Friday and on Saturday the conditions were still growing steadily worse. The dust had changed in color from light grey to orange, and sulphur fumes could be detected. The inhabitants of Kodiak now became thoroughly alarmed and everyone turned to the ship for refuge.

On account of the inky darkness a number became lost and it was necessary to send out rescue parties after them. All of this time the dust was so thick that it was difficult to breathe and to look into it was almost impossible.

We had gathered all hands on board, numbering fifty, and on Sunday we stood down stream from Kodiak, anchoring off Woody Island. People were sleeping everywhere, their bodies would fit in, and huddled in heaps over the engine room gratings and in the drum room around the boilers.

During the time these refugees were on board, two died and two were born.

Finally, after forty-eight hours of total darkness, the sky began to clear off, and by 4 p. m. it was a uniform reddish color that frightened the natives half to death. We knew, however, that it was only the sun trying to peek out, and so made preparations to return to Kodiak the following day.

After things had quieted down a bit we were sent out on expeditions to the various settlements in the danger zone. I was in command of an expedition to the town of Katmai, at the foot of Katmai volcano, and with a gang of big husky Alagans penetrated to within a few miles of the crater.

A large black cloud completely enveloped the mountain top, rent at times by vivid flashes of fire, while the earth rumbled and trembled continuously.

Now and then a loud report, like a twelve-inch gun, added to the general excitement. We found that the natives in the district had all cleared out before the eruption.

All is O. K. now, but the dust on the water has killed most of the salmon and as the natives depend almost entirely upon the fish for food, they will have to be fed by the government for some time.

DREW A FUNNY LITTLE MAN

Sagamore Signature to Indian Deed Recorded in Maine—His Signature Was a Bow and Arrow.

A funny little man, drawn all with black ink, his inch-high body standing club-footed and with arms like a scarecrow—this is the signature of "mark" to the first Indian deed recorded in the state of Maine. This deed conveyed land in South Berwick on the Piscataqua river, and was made in 1643. It is much briefer than present-day deeds, as will be seen:

"Know all who these may come, that Humphrey Chadbourne have bought of Mr. Roles the Sagamore of Newichawanuke Half a Mile of Ground which lieth betwixt the Little River & the Great River to begin at the Northern Side of ye old Ground & for the Conformity thereof the aforesaid Sagamore Mr. Roles hath hereunto set his Hand May the 10th 1643. And the sd Mr. Roles doth except a Parcel of Ground, called by the Name Compegan wech he keep for himself."

The signature of Samoset, he of "Welcome, Englishman," fame, was a bow and arrow, as seen on the deed he made to John Brown of Pemquid long before the deed of "Mr. Roles." But most Indian signatures deeding land to white men were random touches of pen to paper, always, however, "in the presence of" white men as legal witnesses.

The eastern colonies early forbade buying lands of Indians except with the permission and approval of the general court; yet they did not pronounce Indian deeds as such to be invalid. But by an act of 1715, no one not in actual possession on July 31, 1720, could hold under an Indian deed in Maine thereafter.

Turkish Island Rebels.

The Turkish island of Nicaria in the Aegean sea has proclaimed its independence. The inhabitants, who number about 13,000, seized and imprisoned the Turkish officials.

The island of Nicaria, which has an area of about 50 square miles, is famous in mythology for the death of Icarus, whose waxen wings melted when he was flying. At the present day it is occupied almost by charcoal burners of Greek nationality. The principal town is Messaria, which consists of a group of about 200 houses. The islanders have hitherto paid an annual tribute to the Pasha of Rhodes.

Changing fashion made the heavy durable collars less desirable and changing times made them harder to get. Collars for men kept growing—not stronger—but more flimsy—and collar wearers pay the price of frequent frayed edges and torn button holes.

Isn't It Possible "We Wondered" to get a collar with a fine, delicate finish and yet withstand the hardest of laundering?

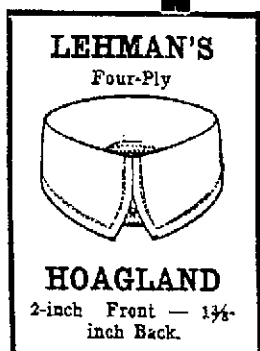

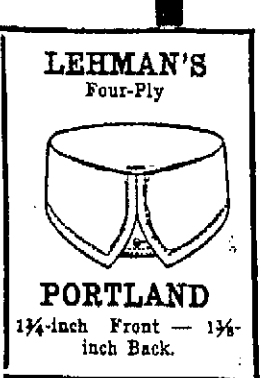

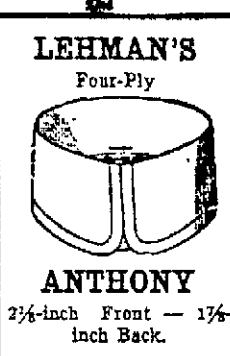

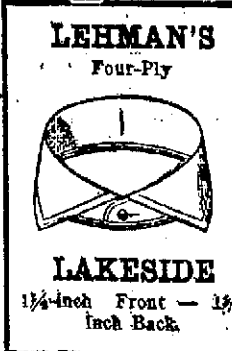

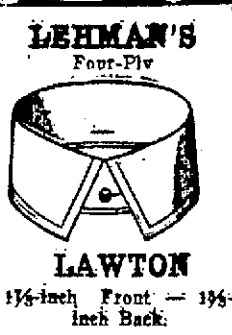

We Took the Matter Up With One of the Largest

Collar Manufacturers in America

With them we Worked Out "Lehman's Four Ply"

It is different—it is an improved and reinforced collar, with stronger button holes and firmer edges. It is fully worth 15c—so much so that you cannot get anything like it elsewhere for less than a quarter. They're put 1/2 doz. in a box.

The Oldest Blood Disease

The most ancient history furnishes evidence that mankind suffered with Contagious Blood Poison. The disease has come down through all the ages and is to-day, as it has ever been, a scourge and blight upon humanity. The symptoms of Contagious Blood Poison are the same as in its earliest history, but its cure has now become an accomplished fact.

S. S. S. is an antidote for the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, and cures it in all its forms and stages. A person who has been cured of Contagious Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S. need not fear a return of its symptoms at any future time. This great medicine checks the progress of the poison and gradually but surely all sores and eruptions heal, ulcerated mouth and throat pass away, the hair stops falling out, copper-colored blotches fade away, and when the blood is thoroughly purified no sign of the disease is left. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all who write.

PAINTS FINISHES

Five Strong Reasons For Fall Painting

1. The wood is thoroughly dry.
Summer's sun has removed all moisture.
2. Paint penetrates deeper into dry wood.
The deeper it goes the better it holds.
3. Fall weather is warm, dry and dependable.
Little danger of cold, damp, rainy days, which endanger the durability of the paint.
4. Wet weather decays and destroys unprotected surfaces.
Lack of paint means unsightly and less valuable property.
5. Fall painting keeps out winter moisture.
The greatest enemy to the life and beauty of all structures.

TRADITION

Tradition may serve all right as a mile post, but it is no good as a guide post. It is faced toward the past. It never leads and never advances.
Tradition has been defined as "Salvation through ossification, a fetter for the foolish, a clock that tells what time it is, a method of holding back the many while some one does the thing which they declared impossible."
This bank has no traditions. It is not a bank of yesterday, but a bank of today and tomorrow. It is a growing bank, but unlike growing potatoes the best part of it is not underground. It is not a "has been," it is an "is."
It has a savings department where 4 per cent is paid on bank accounts.

Don't Keep On Fooling With a Poor Saw!

You throw your money away when you bought it, but don't waste your life trying to make it work. A new one won't cost much. And if you buy the right kind, it will make wood cutting easier than you ever thought it could be.

Atkins Wood Saws

Go through the wood in a jiffy, with little effort. The blade is tapered and does not stick or "buckle" in the wood. Made of high-grade steel, and holds its keen cutting edge longer than any other. Costs no more than a poor saw. Try an Atkins—be sure our name is on the blade. If it disappoints you, take it right back to the dealer.

DIES AS HE TALKS TO OLD COMRADES

Lieut. Gen. Arthur MacArthur Succumbs Suddenly to Apoplexy.

HIS MILITARY LIFE

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 6.—While recalling the deeds of the Twenty-fourth Wisconsin volunteers in the Atlanta campaign, Lieut. Gen. Arthur MacArthur, U. S. A., retired, dropped dead, following an apopleptic stroke at the last reunion of the regiment, known as the "Chamber of Commerce" regiment, in the University building last night.

GEN. ARTHUR MACARTHUR.

Within a few minutes after the venerable general fell to the speakers' platform in the midst of his address, Edwin B. Parsons, a captain and member of the regiment, suffered a paralytic stroke on the right side from the shock of seeing his comrade fall, and had to be carried from the hall.

The old soldiers attending the reunion (there were about one hundred) failed to grasp the situation for some moments and when they rushed to the side of their fallen commander and tried to arouse him the pallor of his face told them that the general was dead.

When Gen. Charles King, a lifelong friend of Gen. MacArthur, told Mrs. MacArthur of her husband's death she fainted and up to an early hour this morning she had not recovered consciousness. A physician is in constant attendance.

Born in Bay State.

Lieut. Gen. MacArthur was born at Springfield, Mass., on June 2, 1845, and entered service as first lieutenant in the Twenty-fourth infantry on Aug. 4, 1862. He became major Jan. 23, 1865, and lieutenant colonel May 18 of the same year. On June 10 he was mustered out, but he again volunteered and was assigned to the Seventeenth United States infantry.

During the civil war he took part in all of the battles of the western campaign and was twice wounded.

In Spanish-American War. Following the close of the civil war he remained in the regular army until the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. He was then made brigadier general of volunteers.

He commanded the First brigade, Eighth Army corps, in the advance on Manila and in the battle there.

Later he was commander of the department of Luzon, the division of the Philippines, and finally military governor of the insular possessions.

Returning to the United States he was commander of the department of the east, and of the lakes. He was retired by the operation of the age limit law on June 2, 1909, three years after he had been promoted to lieutenant general.

Gen. MacArthur was a member of the Legion of Honor.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea, and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

FREE MARRIAGE SERVICES.

The Rev. S. T. DeKins, of St. Louis, Wants Couples to Avoid Justices.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 6.—That no couple need be married by a justice of the peace for lack of a clergyman to perform the ceremony, the Rev. Stephen Taylor DeKins, of 3446 Wyoming street, has advertised, offering his services in such cases. He also states his readiness to officiate at funerals or christenings in response to a telephone call. The Rev. Mr. DeKins is a Presbyterian minister, and a member in good standing of the St. Louis Presbytery.

HOLDS SHIP FOR A BRIDE'S TRUNK

Missing Baggage Found But Delay Cost Government Big Amount.

IT WAS A ROMANCE

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—Must a school teacher, young, attractive, a bride of only a few hours, be expected to go to Alaska while her trunk lies sidetracked, and lost somewhere along a transcontinental railroad? was the query propounded to Capt. Charles Wall, of the chartered government steamship Homer, and the skipper, himself starting out on a belated honeymoon, took two turns about the quarterdeck and answered it. She shall not. In fact, she did not.

And the result was that Uncle Sam paid $250 a day for two days holding the steamer at her dock in San Francisco while Tracer John Gray, of the Southern Pacific, hunted the missing baggage. He found it and the government steamer sailed.

The romance and the catastrophe which involved a journey across the continent, a tying up of the United States steamship service and a burying of an army of railroad checkers and tracers began somewhere in the east when the Overland limited, whirling Charles Whitney westward toward his post at Seal Island, Alaska, stopped to take on board another school teacher, but of the gentler sex, whose ultimate destination also was Seal Island. The two pedagogues met and became friendly on the overland journey. That friendship grew as the miles flew. Then came the climax.

"Let's get married," suggested Whitney, as their train was whirling through Western Illinois.

"Let's!" echoed the other. And they did.

Consequently, Captain Wall found a

"Mr. and Mrs. Whitney" on his passenger list when the Homer was due to sail.

Such was the romance.

Now for the catastrophe. The Homer had been coaled and provisioned, the furnaces were roaring and the vessel was creaking at her bows when a tearful, weebegone bride approached Captain Wall on the bridge of the quarterdeck and revealed her plight.

Her trunk, with all the belongings which a woman about to leave the centers of commerce for the wilds of an untamed land would be likely to pack into it, had not arrived in San Francisco with the Overland. Moreover, there was no telling when it would arrive. And the ship was about to sail!

Captain Wall was himself in a sympathetic state. Although married for three years, he was about to take a honeymoon long deferred and his own "bride" was on the ship also. Surely the government owed him something for postponing that wedding trip three years. He determined to collect on the spot.

"The ship will wait," he ordered.

Others of the crew quietly slipped down the gangplank and were swallowed up in the lights of San Francisco. But Captain Wall stood firm, albeit the government was paying out an extra $250 a day to hold that vessel.

But the bride got her trunk.

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

JOHN H. FRANKE
IS PROMOTEDFormer Fort Wayne Man
Now General Manager of Railroad.WABASH OFFICIALS
OUT ON INSPECTIONGen. Supt. Cotter Spends the Morning in Conference
With Local Officials.

One of the rapidly advancing young railway men of the day is John H. Franke, Jr., a native of Fort Wayne, now located in Peoria, Ill. Yesterday a bulletin bearing the signature of President W. T. Irwin, of the Peoria Railway Terminal company, was received at the local railway offices, announcing the promotion of Mr. Franke. The bulletin read as follows:

"Effective September 1, Mr. John H. Franke has been appointed general manager of the Peoria Railway Terminal company, in charge of all property and operation thereof. The office of superintendent is hereby abolished. Also, Mr. Thomas F. Scanlon has been elected treasurer of the company in charge of all finances."

John H. Franke, Jr., is the son of Machinist John H. Franke, Sr., of the Wabash shops, and a brother of Julian F. Franke, of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company. He was born, educated and learned the machinist's trade in the city, serving his apprenticeship in the Pennsylvania shops, where the father was also employed a number of years. He went to Peoria thirteen years ago to take a position with the Peoria Railway Terminal company as a mechanic and was elevated by degrees to his present position.

THOMSON SCHOLARSHIP.

E. M. French and Herbert Ridgway the Winners.

The annual award of the two Frank Thomson Scholarships will be made today. Herbert Ridgway, of Camden, N. J., and Edward McKinley French, of Cleveland, O., were the successful candidates on the lines east and west of Pittsburgh, respectively, having received the highest averages in a competitive examination which was open to the sons of all employees of the Pennsylvania railroad system. At present there are eight holders of these scholarships, which amount to $500 annually. This is the number maintained out of a fund endowed in the sum of $120,000 by the children of the late Frank Thomson, former president of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, as a memorial to their father.

Herbert Ridgway is the son of M. B. Ridgway, a passenger conductor on the West Jersey and Seashore railroad. He is 20 years of age, and is at present attending Cornell university, where he expects to continue his studies.

Edward McKinley French is the son of H. A. French, deceased, formerly division freight agent of the Marietta division of the Pennsylvania lines west. He has been attending the Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, O., where he expects to continue his studies.

The Frank Thomson scholarship fund was established in 1907. Last year the successful candidates were Robert Francis Hohmann, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who is now a student at Stevens university, and John James Caldwell, of Greensburg, Penn., who is at present attending the University of Pennsylvania. In 1910, George F. Wolfe, of Youngwood, Penn., and M. Roy Strong, of Cleveland, O., were awarded the scholarships. Benjamin M. Snyder, Jr., of Elmira, N. Y., and Wallace B. Porter, of Youngstown, O., were the successful candidates in 1909.

HAD WRONG MAN KILLED.

In the reports of the killing of two men on the Pennsylvania at a road crossing near Inwood, Ind., yesterday morning, the name of one of the victims was wrong. The victims were Scott Harmon and Till Gunn and in the reports filed by the conductor of the train, the name of Bruce Seymour was given instead of Till Gunn. The men had taken a piano to Plymouth and left that city for their homes at 9 o'clock Wednesday night and en route stopped at a country dance. They were asleep when the train struck their wagon and one of their horses was killed. Harmon was thrown twenty feet and Gunn was thrown on the tracks and his body cut into pieces. Harmon leaves a widow and a fifteen-year-old daughter; Gunn leaves a widow but no children.

Y. M. C. A. IN BUSINESS.

The Railroad Y. M. C. A. at Lafayette is operating a restaurant in connection with the other features usually found in such places. The patrons of the Y. M. C. A. are chiefly Monon railroad employees and the Monon, recognizing the good influence upon its men, is contributing liberally to the support of the association. Recently the bathroom was overhauled and added to and some new lavatories were placed in the building at the expense of the Monon.

FOUR GENERATIONS

REPRESENTED.

The twenty-three people who surrounded the table at a dinner at the home of Yarn Conductor Marie Repine, 2531 Smith street, last evening, represented five generations. The dinner was given in honor of Marquis McClain, of Gallon, Ohio, the grandfather of the host, who is here on a visit. He is eighty-nine years old and made the trip in company with one of his daughters without any apparent fatigue. Others at the dinner were the daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren of the aged man, who reside in Fort Wayne. He left for Gallon at noon today, greatly pleased with the attention he received here.

MR. COTTER HERE.

General Superintendent of Wabash Inspects Improvements.

General Superintendent S. E. Cotter, of the Wabash, spent the forenoon in the city today, looking over the freight and shop yards and conferring with the local officials about changes that will have to be made to meet the demands arising from the elevation of the tracks, putting in more main tracks and sidings and bettering the facilities at the shops, freight house and yards. Mr. Cotter came in last evening, accompanied by Division Engineer W. S. Dames, and remained here until noon, when he left for Detroit.

BANQUET COMMITTEE MEETS.

At the Railroad Y. M. C. A. hall this evening the officials and the committee of the Pennsylvania Company Employees' Veterans association will make the preliminary arrangements for the annual meeting and banquet of the association. The date of the meeting and as far as possible the program will be fixed this evening. It is likely the meeting will be held early in October and that the chief speaker will be one of the general officers of the road. Last year General Superintendent A. M. Schoyer made the chief address.

FELL OFF PORCH.

George L. Osterman, of 905 East Washington street, has not been able to work for nearly a week past, the result of an accident last Saturday. He was engaged in making some repairs to the spouting at his home on that day, when he slipped and fell off the porch, dislocating his shoulder and suffering several bruises. Mr. Osterman is a tinner in the Wabash shops.

AN UNFORTUNATE SHOPMAN.

R. F. Carney, a machinist's helper under instructions at the Pennsylvania greasing shop, is off duty a second time within a month on account of an accident. A week ago he reported after recovering from a painful injury to one of his thumbs and yesterday he had the second finger of the same hand lacerated and bruised so badly that it will be a week before he will be able to work.

TO HAVE OFFICE AT INDIANAPOLIS

The Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain will establish an agency in Indianapolis and will install A. L. Trowbridge in charge. He has been traveling freight agent for the company, with headquarters in Chicago.

BACK AT OLD JOB.

John D. Bostick, time clerk at the Wabash shops, resumed that duty this morning, after an absence of three or four months. He was at the Lima Locomotive works, "keeping tabs" on the work of rebuilding ten locomotives for the Wabash.

Plumpness Makes Health

Thin People Need This.

If you are too thin; if you are pale and sallow; if what you eat seems not to strengthen you; if your line and cheeks are colorless; if it is because your blood is deficient in red corpuscles and disease can easily overcome you, as you have no reserve strength or nourishment to uphold you.

A pharmaceutical product, called 3

WAS ONE OF THE SPEAKERS.

Division Freight Agent E. T. Wood, of the Pennsylvania, attended a meeting of the Lima Transportation club in the parlors of the Hotel Norval at Lima, Wednesday and took part in a discussion on the subject of freight classification. There were thirty shippers and railway men present and following the discussion there was a "smoker."

WABASH BUSINESS BIG.

Business on the Penn division of the Wabash is certainly booming at the present time. Al King, road foreman of engines, has already hired twenty firemen this week, together with the twelve put to work last week. During the past two weeks Trainmaster C. E. Wells has hired more than thirty new brakemen.

HERE ONLY TWO HOURS.

President F. A. Delano and the board of directors of the Wabash spent two hours in the city yesterday afternoon, coming in on a special train at 3 o'clock and leaving at 5. They took a look at the new freight terminals and at track elevation work.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

J. F. Bachelder and C. H. Menne-wisch, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Hugh J. Conway, engine dispatcher at the Pennsylvania round house, is sick and off duty.

Fireman R. E. Neff, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, is sick and off duty.

C. Metzler, a Pennsylvania car repairman, will go to Richmond tomorrow to visit friends over Sunday.

Passenger Fireman W. E. Stevens, of the Pennsylvania, is off duty on account of the illness of his little son.

J. J. Fellers and C. Lehnert, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, are off duty on account of the death of a relative.

Night Watchman J. Weiss, of the Pennsylvania shops, will be the guest of relatives in Columbus, Ohio, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Clark will go to Chicago tomorrow to visit relatives. He is a stationary fireman at the Pennsylvania shops.

Next week C. Renken, of the East car shops, with his wife and daughter, Miss Velma, will leave for New York for a ten days' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. King have returned to their home in Lafayette, after spending a week with friends in this city. Mr. King is a machinist in the Monon shops.

John Stewart resumed his work as caller at the Wabash freight house this morning. He had been off duty on account of the sickness and death of his daughter.

ly injured her at Monroe, Ind., at 7:21 a. m. The lady was hurrying to the station to buy a ticket to Portland to attend the fair and was struck by the train as it was pulling in to the station. She was attended by a surgeon and then conveyed to her home.

Machinist Julius Simon, one of the old employees in point of service at the Pennsylvania shops, started for his old home in Canada this morning, to spend two weeks with relatives and friends.

A. Lincoln Johnson, foreman of the men in the shipping and laboring department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has moved his family into a suburban home out on the St. Joe road, known as the "Romy homestead."

Engineer and Mrs. D. C. Madara, of Bellewood, Pa., are again the guests of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Madara. They had been visiting relatives in the west and stopped off here for a few days on their way home.

Connections between the Wabash watering tanks and the city water mains will be made tonight and immediately the work of replacing the six inch pipes leading from the pumping station at the St. Mary's river with eight inch pipes will be taken up.

T. J. Smithers, of the production department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, will join his wife in Terre Haute tomorrow and after a ten days' visit there, she will accompany him home.

Mrs. Smithers went to the southern part of the state a week or two ago.

General Foreman George James, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a two weeks' vacation. Accompanied by Mrs. James he went to Chicago today, where he will attend the veterans' meeting tomorrow. Then Mr. and Mrs. James will visit St. Joseph and other places in Michigan.

Foreman J. A. Foster, of the Pennsylvania air brake room, who went to Burlington, Iowa, to visit relatives a week ago, was taken ill there and had to return home sooner than he expected.

His condition is not serious, however, and he will be able to resume work in a few days.

F. Laird, a carpenter at the Pennsylvania shops, is preparing for a trip to New Orleans, La., the latter part of the month. He has a son residing in that city, whom he will visit. Mrs. Laird and their daughters, the Misses Jennie and Mary Laird, will accompany Mr. Laird on the trip.

Engineer William Beck is disabled by a sprained ankle; Engineer Peter Reilly is sick; Fireman G. L. Sweeney is kept from work by the sickness of his father; Fireman L. A. Overmeyer had an eye injured by a hot cylinder and Fireman F. H. Sliger and E. W. Stute are sick.

The Chicago limited, No. 23, on the Pennsylvania, was one hour and fifteen minutes late this morning when it pulled into the city. This is unusual for this train, which reaches the terminals on time 95 out of 100 trips. The delay was caused by some freight accident east of Crestline.

The Panhandle is making some experiments with superheaters and mechanical stokers on engines on the track between Logansport and Bradford, Junction, O. The H-8 type of engines are being used in making the experiments and a specially constructed drawbar testing device is used to record the power expanded in pulling the train.

SILENT SQUIRE GOES TO JAIL.

Refuses to Tell Jury Where He Got His Liquor.

Smithville, Tenn., Sept. 6.—"Now, Squire Stephens, you will either inform that whisky or go to jail until you do tell," were the words of Judge Davis to Squire Will Stephens, justice of the peace from the Twenty-third district of this county, who refused to inform the grand jury from whom he had bought some whisky. "I'll go to jail, then," was the squire's reply to the judge. "All right. Take him to jail, officer, and keep him there until he is willing to do his duty as a citizen," came from the judge. So Squire Stephens went to jail with little prospects of getting out soon, unless he recedes from his obstinate position. This is not likely, as he said after being lodged behind the bars: "I'll stay here a long time before I will tell."

An Everyday View of the Next Sunday School Lesson

By RICHARD S. HOLMES, in The Continent.

Lesson for September 5—The Mission of the Twelve.

Lesson text, Matthew 9:35-10:15; 10:40-11:1. Golden text, Matthew 10:40: "He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me."

The work of Jesus had outgrown him. Tireless as he was, he could not keep pace with it. Sometimes he was compelled to stop for rest, but his work never stopped for that. Jesus resolved to make the twelve help him. He had said he would make them fishers of men, and now they were to begin. He made plain the need (v. 37.)

He did not leave them in the dark. He gave definite directions as to the duty that at this juncture devolved upon them (v. 38.) The Lord's prayer given in the sermon on the mount was for them to use for themselves. The prayer, "Thy kingdom come," was being answered in their sight. This prayer was for help in reaping the harvest even then waiting.

Duty Begins at Home in Seeking the Lost Sheep.

With verses 5 and 6 begin the first definite instructions for Christian activity. Those nearest are to be sought first—"lost sheep of the house of Israel." The remainder of chapter 10 is the first lecture in pastoral theology ever given to Christian workers. What Jesus said was the result of his own experience and of his prophetic vision of what was coming to him and later to the twelve.

The lesson is so long it cannot possibly be fully treated here, if taken verse by verse. Neither can it be so treated in class. Chapter 10 must be read over and over until its ideas are all mastered. Verse 8 is especially noteworthy. Prove your authority to represent the kingdom by doing the works of the King. Jesus gave power to the twelve to do such things as he had done. We may still do in a measure as Jesus did. I do not mean work physical miracles, but we may so act that men will know we are actuated by divine power. Such power as the twelve had was freely given to them, and Jesus expected them to use it freely. Such was Christ's message to them, and it comes to us with the same force. Whatever be your gift from God, use it for the salvation of human souls.

The Tireless Jesus Always Ready to Do the One Thing More.

The tireless Jesus! Nothing was too great for him to do. He was always ready for the one thing more. There is no record of his saying, "I am too tired to do that." None that he said, "Wait until tomorrow."

The harvest of which he spoke was, I think, the opportunity to work among the multitudes. The same opportunity continues today.

Just think! Jesus told the twelve to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into his harvest, and then, before they could make the prayer, he answered it himself by sending them forth. Does not that prove that he looked upon himself as the Lord of the harvest?

No one of the twelve began asking himself, "Am I called to preach?" Each man of them knew absolutely that he was sent, and that he must not refuse. There is a difference between being called and being sent.

Can you imagine that Judas Iscariot cleansed any lepers, or opened any blind eyes, or healed any sick? Some of his associates did wonderful things. But John says in his gospel, Judas was a thief from the beginning, and thieves are not likely to be filled with the divine spirit.

Home first. Your brothers, sisters, father, mother. "Do the next thing," is a great motto. "Next" means nearest, so it is plain one's own friends may furnish one a field of labor.

The great thought in the mind of Christ and the chief theme on his tongue was the kingdom of God. That it was "at hand" was the message of John the Baptist. "It is among you" was the word of Jesus. Only four or five had eyes to see it when John preached. But God kept it close at hand all the time. He still keeps it near. Wander never so far in the ways of sin, if a real desire to come into the kingdom enters into your heart a single step will place you there.

Will I have backing and support in my effort at reaping in the harvest of God? Do you ask that? Or perhaps some will ask, "Ought I to leave my work to try to win souls?" Those are small things about which to worry. Said Jesus to those twelve men, "Go without money." In work for God the first element required is trust, not money. The man who cannot trust God when God plainly puts before him work that will cost sacrifice is not worthy to be trusted with the work.

As God Gives to Us, So Must We Give to Him.

"Freely give," said Jesus. "Why should I?" you reply. Go read anew John 3:16. Freely God has given to you. Have you loved God enough to give him anything?

"A cup of cold water" is a beautiful metaphor for kindness. Carry your cup of cold water in your hand wherever you go. No matter if it spill. The spring in the heart will fill it again.

Jesus did not appoint these twelve to arduous service in order that he might be relieved from toil. In his code there was no precept, "You work, and I will oversee." "My Father worketh hitherto and I work" was the law that ruled him. Read Matthew 11:1.

Opposition in one's own home is hard to bear, but if necessary it must be borne. There was a time when Jesus experienced that also (John 7:5). The way the Master had to walk was hard and sorrowful. We are no better than he. It must sometimes be that a man's foes are those of his own household.

But the crown is worth the contest. He that endureth until the end shall be saved.

Running up and down stairs, sweeping and bending over making beds will not make a woman healthy or beautiful. She must get out of doors, walk a mile or two every day and take Chamberlain's Tablets to improve her digestion and regulate her bowels. For sale by all dealers.

SANSKRIT WORKS FOR OXFORD.

Manuscript from 1,200 to 1,400 Years Old Are Lent College.

London, Sept. 6.—The Maharajah of Nepal has kindly lent some priceless old Sanskrit manuscripts from his private library at Khatmandu to Oxford University. The manuscripts are mostly written on palm leaves, which are bound by strips of wood at the top and bottom and with a strip of fiber put through the middle of the leaves to keep them together. The leaves are of various sizes, 3 inches by 15 inches being about the usual size. In all, the manuscripts contain over 7,000 leaves, every one of which is to be photographed by special permission before they are returned to Nepal. Some of them are of most valuable character, as they are from 1,200 to 1,400 years old. The climate of Nepal is, of course, more favorable than that of Bengal for the preservation of such documents, and the manuscripts are in good readable condition. Many pundits are looking forward with interest to an examination of the documents.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

WOMAN OUT FOR SHERIFF.

Friends Urge the Election of Mrs. Decker, Who Captured Bandit.

Craig, Col., Sept. 6.—"Mrs. Annie Decker for sheriff." This is the slogan of friends of the intrepid woman who captured, single-handed and alone, Charles Sartelle, alias Charles Morgan, alleged leader of the desperate gang of desperadoes from the Hole in the Wall country, Wyoming. If Mrs. Decker consents to make the race for sheriff of Moffatt county it will be the first time in the history of the state that a woman has sought this office. As a result of the terrible suffering sustained by the trio of outlaws who broke jail here a week ago, Charles Franzen, the first captured, is lying at the point of death in a local hospital, suffering from blood poison through the infection of the bullet wound which he suffered prior to his capture. Sartelle is a maniac and has to be tied to his cot in the jail at Dixon, Wyo., where he was taken following his capture by Mrs. Decker.

ADVISES PREACHER TO WORK.

Cincinnati Judge Talks to Evangelist of Winchester, Ind.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 6.—The case of Sirl Winchester, evangelist of the American Volunteers, was continued in juvenile court today upon the promise of his son, Sirl Winchester, jr., a Texas ranchman, to give bond to free his father from the charge of failure to provide for the father's 13-year-old daughter, Ruth. The latter is living here with the evangelist's divorced wife. The evangelist's home now is in Winchester, Ind. "How much do you earn as an evangelist?" Judge Caldwell asked. "I earn from $15 to $18 a week when I conduct my meetings." "You had better quit your gospel tent and go to work to support your family," Judge Caldwell advised him.

SEARCHING FOR TREASURES.

Expedition to Sluice Sands of Desert Islands.

Seattle, Sept. 6.—In search of the long sought buried treasures on Cocos island, Capt. Fred Hackett has sailed from Port Blakeley in the old American bark Hesper. Captain Hackett says he believes firmly that he holds one true chart which will lead him to the riches in the desert island off the coast of Panama.

The captain declares he has spent his savings of a lifetime in buying and fitting the Hesper for the trip. He is taking a mate and four sailors, and is carrying with him a hydraulic equipment with which he proposes to sluice for the treasure.

Part of the funds for the trip will be obtained by carrying a cargo of lumber from Gray's Harbor to Antofagasta, Chile. At Gray's Harbor, also, several members will be added to the crew.

HERE'S THE STORY OF THE LATEST ROW IN NICARAGUA WHETHER OUR MARINES ARE RUSHING TO PROTECT AMERICAN INTERESTS.

central figures in the Nicaraguan revolution are: Gen. Emiliano Chamorro, in command of the government army, and a candidate for president, known as the "lion-hearted," Gen. Luis Mena, deposed minister of war, and leader of the revolutionists, who are known as the "strong man," and last, Gen. Adolfo Diaz, known as the "man."

Nicaraguans say that this revolution is its real inception in the rivalry between Senora Mena and Senora Chamorro, each being ambitious to wear the crown of "Madame President." Their unending desires for the social prestige which accompanies the position of "first lady in the land," is said to have parted Mena and Chamorro, who, during the "reign of terror," while Zelaya was tyrant-executive, were brother exiles in foreign countries.

Mena has a great deal of negro blood in him. He stands over six feet, and is a giant in strength. He is the idol of the soldiers, and exceedingly popular with the semi-negro natives.

Emiliano Chamorro has from his father the proud blood of the Spaniards; from his mother's side a touch of Indian. When all others ran from Zelaya he alone stood his ground and narrowly escaped death scores of times. That was where he got his "lion-heart" title. President Diaz is a pure-blood. He is a thinker, financier, scholar. When he succeeded to the presidency after Estrada, Zelaya's successor, died, May, 1911, Diaz divided up the government according to an agreement, giving Mena the army and police, as minister of war, and handed over to Chamorro the legislature, retaining the executive powers himself.

Mena, as head of the army and police at Managua, controlled the country. Chamorro and Diaz were mere figure-heads. He had another legislature elected, a Mena congress, to take the place of the Chamorro congress. The Mena congress then elected Mena president for the term beginning in 1913, and further dictated that the selection should not be subject to popular approval. In other words, the legislature took the election of president away from the people.

Then Diaz fled Mena as minister of war. Mena took what troops he could separate from their allegiance to the government, with other recruits, and began his insurrection.

Naturally the worst elements joined the insurrectionists, for that gave them a chance to loot and murder as they wished.

Mena had, during his term as minister of war, tried to force the acceptance by the government of the $15,000,000 loan from Brown Bros. and J. & W. Seligman, Wall street bankers, but he couldn't. The legislature did borrow $15,000,000, and now an American collector takes $75,000 of the customs at the port of Corinto every month to square that temporary loan.

While Secretary Knox was in Managua last winter he was the special guest of Mena and spent much time with him.

He went by the name of Amos Hodge down in Nicaragua, and ran mine by day and played poker by night. Finally he fell in love with the sweetheart of the mayor of a small interior town. That made the mayor angry, and he ordered out a detachment of soldiers to capture the Hodge person.

The soldiers with loaded rifles at their shoulders met the American as he was riding his mule out to the mine.

"Surrender!" yelled the captain. Hodge whipped out his automatic and ordered the soldiers to put their guns down. They did.

"About face!" cried Hodge, and, "March!"

Arriving at the mayor's house he called the official out.

"Take your blasted army in or they might get hurt!" he advised the mayor.

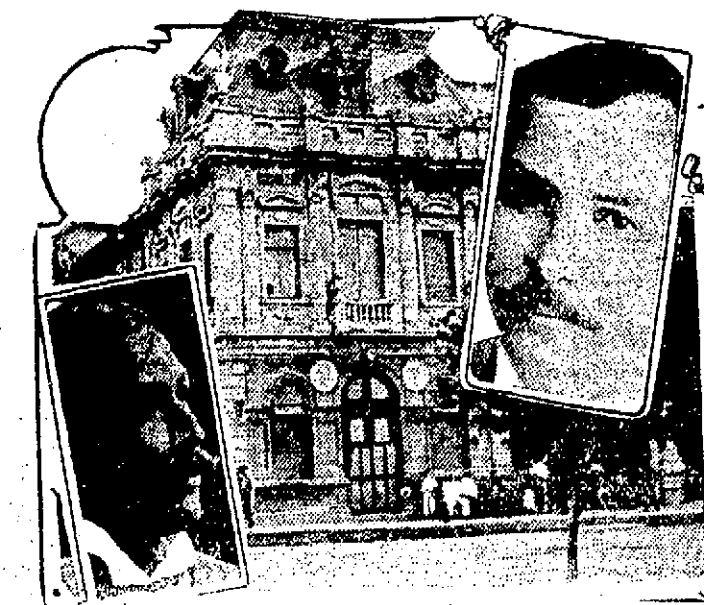

The funny part about it was that Hodge didn't have his pistol loaded when he "repulsed" the enemy's attack.

CHASED HER OUT WITH A SHOTGUN

This Charge Made Against Jacob Ragan in a Suit for Divorce.

A PROMINENT FARMER

In a divorce complaint under which she asks a decree and $5,000 alimony, Eva Ragan charges that Jacob Ragan, a prominent Wayne township farmer, chased her out of the house with a shotgun.

She also says that for three months he has been in the habit of going home highly intoxicated and cursing and chasing her and she alleges that on one occasion he choked her severely.

She says he has a farm worth $8,000 and has money on deposit in the banks and she obtained a restraining order to prevent him from disposing of his property while the suit is pending. Underwood and Geake filed the suit.

Charges Cruelty. In a divorce complaint filed by Minnie Food she accuses Alanzo Wood of cruelty and demands a divorce.

Rejected the Approach. The county commissioners held a joint conference with the Adams county board today at the county line bridge and rejected the approach which the contractor reported completed. They ordered more filling. The Weber stone and gravel company line was accepted.

Articles Are Filed. The Weisser Park Improvement company has filed articles of incorporation with the county recorder. The capital stock is $50,000 and the incorporators are William M. Griffin, J. Ross McCulloch, Frank H. Poole, Charles Weatherly and David C. Stout.

Stetzer Property Divided. Under the will of the late Peter Stetzer his daughter, Margaret Stetzer, appointed executrix and trustee and was ordered to sell the residence at 1032 Washington boulevard and to receive $500 and to give to her sisters $500, Katherine $600, Emma $500, Helen Etzold $400 and to $500 in trust for Caroline Sowers, another sister. Adolph Stetzer, a brother, is to receive $400.

CLIMBS TO 91 DEGREES. Temperature in Fort Wayne Slightly Lower Than Yesterday.

THE WEATHER.

LOCAL FORECASTS.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 6.—For Fort Wayne and vicinity: Fair and continued warm tonight; Saturday, fair and cooler.

GENERAL FORECAST.

Washington, Sept. 6.—For Indiana: Probably fair tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday and in northwest portion tonight.

For Ohio: Unsettled tonight and Saturday; somewhat cooler in north and west portions Saturday.

For Lower Michigan: Fair and cooler tonight and Saturday.

Summary of Weather Conditions.

The unusually warm weather which has prevailed over the central and southern portions of the country during the last week or more continues unbroken, although some local showers are reported this morning from Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. Over New York and the North Atlantic coast states the heat has not been so great as over the central portion of the country, and showers are reported from that section of the country. Temperatures from 90 to 94 degrees were recorded yesterday as far north as Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul; at Fort Wayne, 94 was recorded, which is the highest of the season.

From the Rockies westward cool weather prevails, with some frosts. The cooler weather is spreading southeastward, the Dakotas and Nebraska reporting much cooler weather this morning. Fair weather will probably continue in this section tonight and Saturday, while it will continue warm tonight, cooler weather may be expected before Saturday night.

WORLD'S SERIES DATE.

Games Will Begin October 8, Says President Ban Johnson.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 6.—The series for the world's baseball championship will begin October 8, according to President B. B. Johnson, of the American league in a letter to a local paper. The American league pennant winner will not engage in a post season series with a picked team of the league, says President Johnson.

Mr. Johnson's letter follows: "A series of exhibition games for the champions of the American leagues at the close of this season would be impossible. In the east the championship race closes October 5 and in the west on the following day. The series for the world's championship will begin Tuesday, October 8. The only preparation the American league champions will make for this event will be to take a good substantial rest for two or three days."

MURDER AND ROBBERY.

Ashland, Ky., Sept. 6.—The body of Frank McCarthy, aged 22 years, son of J. C. McCarthy, superintendent of the United Fuel Gas company, was found today in East Fork creek in Boyd county. Indications are that he had been robbed, murdered and his body thrown into the creek. Coroner Swope left this morning for the scene of the tragedy and will bring the body to this city.

WANDERED ABOUT STREET.

Girl Slept One Night in Park and Another on a Front Porch.

Elgie Hess, sixteen years old and daughter of Chris Hess, was taken into custody today by Officer Louis Crawley and locked up on a charge of loitering after she had told half a dozen different stories about herself. Her parents live west of the city and she said she left home Tuesday and spent one night in Swinney park and another on a porch on Home avenue. She had not been reported missing but her stories were so conflicting that the chief ordered her held.

Annual U. C. T. Picnic Tomorrow at Robison Park—Ball Game.

The annual picnic of the local members of the United Commercial Travelers and their families will be an event of tomorrow afternoon and evening at Robison park. The main feature of the afternoon will be a ball game on the park diamond between the local U. C. T. team and the team from Kokomo. A basket lunch will be served at the lunch hour, and the evening will be spent in enjoying the pleasures of the park.

MARINES HURRY FORWARD.

Second Battalion of Americans Now En Route to Managua.

Corinto, Nicaragua, Sept. 5.—All the American marines from Philadelphia who arrived here on board the California have left on their way to Managua. The first battalion departed yesterday and will be followed today by the second battalion and by 350 blue-jackets from the United States cruiser Colorado.

Some of these men are to be used as guards along the railroad and the remainder go direct to Managua to reinforce the American guard already in the capital for the protection of American lives and property. The revolution appears to be losing ground, according to reports received here from various points.

HEAT LEADS TO SUICIDE.

TERRIFIC DIN GREET'S JOHNSON

Nominee Delivers Address at New York Progressive Convention.

ATTACKS BOSS RULE

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Gov. Johnson, of California, today visited the native city of his parents and addressed the first New York progressive state convention. With his entrance into New York the governor linked the two coasts of the country in his present campaign and he brought a message of hope to the members of the new party. Everywhere, he said he had seen unmistakable signs of welcome for the new movement.

Disorder greeted the governor when he arose to address the convention. "Bull moose" horns and megaphones made a terrific din. The band made a futile attempt to make itself heard, but when the cheering was at its height the bass drummer was the only musician who had any success. The applause lasted for nearly ten minutes. Chairman Oscar S. Strauss introduced the speaker as "the next vice president of the United States."

Attacks Boss Rule. The governor early attacked the "boss rule" of New York. He said that Mr. Barnes and Mr. Murphy had performed the onerous duties of citizenship for the people, but that the time for a change in affairs had arrived.

"This is the party of men and women who are unafraid," the governor said, "and to you today I bring the message of the west, the message of cheer, and I can say to you the revolution is on west of the Mississippi now and the revolution is going to extend east of the Mississippi as well."

"It is a glorious contest in which you have enlisted, a glorious struggle and your brethren of the west are coming to your aid. It is a glorious struggle that can only result in good to the country that we love and that can only result in sixty days of education in placing this nation one-quarter of a century ahead on its glorious career."

"Out in the west, 3,000 miles away, every man and every woman is an individual political unit."

The state committee chose Oscar S. Strauss, of New York, and I. L. Hunt, of Waterbury, electors at large. George W. Perkins, of New York, and Elton H. Hooker, the progressive national treasurer, were made electors from their home districts.

HOTEL EMPLOYEES STRIKE.

Boston Hoteliers Are Crippled During Noon Rush Hour.

Boston, Sept. 6.—Seventy-five employees of the Parker House and Hotel Touraine struck today during the rush hour. The strikers were called by Organizer Blocklinger after the labor leaders had failed to reach an agreement with the hotel management regarding the employment of union porters. Many of the waiters at the Parker House were among the strikers and the management was inconvenienced in serving the guests in the diningroom. Only a small number of employees struck at the Touraine.

VICTIM OF HIGHWAYMEN.

James E. Pollock Beaten and Robbed Near Washington, Pa.

Washington, Pa., Sept. 6.—James H. Pollock was held up and robbed two miles from here during last night by two highwaymen, who beat him into insensibility, stole his watch, $200 in cash and a New York draft for $18,000. They then put him into his buggy and started the horse for Washington. Police are searching for the robbers.

lock, dazed and covered with blood from his wounds, was found wandering in the streets here this morning. A posse of deputy sheriffs with bloodhounds have gone to the scene of the robbery.

WILDBEST ACT KILLS LAD.

Centerville, Iowa, Sept. 6.—Performing "Wildwest" acts depicted on bill boards, the 11-year-old son of J. J. Hanrahan, accidentally hanged himself with a lasso in a tree here last night. The body was found today after a search lasting all night.

SPECIAL OFFERINGS FOR OUR FIRST ANNIVERSARY

It has been one year since we purchased the old Romadka Store and turned it into a real live up-to-the-minute Leather Shop.

Our efforts have been to give to the public the "best for the money always," to sell only goods we know are dependable, no matter what the price and to please our patrons at any cost.

That our endeavors have met with public approval is evidenced by a constantly increasing patronage and has spurred us on to even greater efforts. In consequence, during this our anniversary we are offering

DAILY GAIN IN WEIGHT

As to Those Who Use Samose, Says Druggist Meyer Bros. Co.

The poor, thin, emaciated person, when he or she becomes plump, rosy and robust by using Samose, forgets that there is such a thing as weakness and underweight.

Samose restores health to the whole system so that the tissues assimilate from the food all of those elements which make solid bone, firm muscle, pure blood, and sufficient fat to restore beautiful and symmetrical outlines to the figure.

An increase in weight is seen from the first week's use of Samose, but if it does not restore you to your proper vitality, Druggists Meyer Bros. Co. will return your money. You certainly can afford to try Samose on this guarantee.

THURSDAY FOR BEVERIDGE DAY

Gubernatorial Candidate is Expected at Great Fort Wayne Fair.

RUSH WORK FORWARD

"Beveridge Day" at the Fort Wayne fair will be observed Thursday afternoon, Sept. 12, according to the present plans of the Bull Moosemen, who figure on bringing their gubernatorial candidate here for a couple of hours that afternoon. He speaks in Columbia City Thursday night and will be solicited to come into Fort Wayne for at least two or three hours during the day following "Marshall Day." The two great Indiana leaders of these opposing parties being in Fort Wayne on successive days will afford an exceptional opportunity of gauging the comparative strength of the third-termers and the Wilson-Marshall combination in this district.

Although politics and politicians will occupy the center of the stage at the Great Fort Wayne Fair for two of the five days, there will be plenty of "business" along the edges to interest every one not vitally concerned with the coming election. The "Tiger Bill" Wild West show and Wild Animal Exhibition is one of the big "pike" attractions booked within the last day by the management. This show uses fifty horses and several cages of lions and tigers to give its show, one of the acts being a trained lion exhibition with a cage of six of the kings of the jungle in it. The "Tiger Bill" show is the second Wild West attraction billed, as the Hoagland show already had secured space on the "pike." The Hoagland shows were here a couple of years ago and scored heavily.

Ground Superintendent Henry Kruse asserts that he will have the building and big park in spic and span order by Sunday morning, so that the advance guard of "fair fans" will find everything right up to the scratch. The new wagon entrance off the north terminus of Forest park boulevard is about finished and will be ready for any character of travel by Sunday. The buildings, including the grandstands, bleachers, exhibition halls, pet stock pens, horse stables, etc., have been thoroughly cleaned, the weeds and grass mowed and everything put in readiness for the biggest fair in the history of the association.

William Tonkel, superintendent of horses, has returned from the Van Wert fair with a list full of entries for horses and cattle in the live stock department. The dining hall service this year will be better than ever. Of course "Uncle Davy" Thompson will have his stand the same as he has for ten years, and the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ will also have a tent. The old German Village building will be used as a dining hall this year, but the space has not as yet been contracted for. The Crescent Avenue Evangelical church will also have a general refreshment booth at the grounds.

FOUR OF 142 CONVICTS BACK

Leavenworth Prison Issues Figures Regarding Its Paroled Men.

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 6.—Only four of 142 prisoners released on parole from the federal prison here in the eighteen months the parole law has been in effect have violated their terms of freedom, according to figures just issued. Three of the men have been returned to serve their sentences, while the fourth is marked on the books as "escaped" and is said to be in Canada. During the eighteen months the parole board denied application for liberty from 304 prisoners. These show that in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, the former convicts earned $21,381.54, an average of $565.40. "The expense to the government in putting the parole law into effect has been $2,663.61. This includes the salary of the parole officer, who has traveled approximately 25,000 miles in visiting paroled prisoners. Of the paroled men, fifty-two have been granted their final discharge and two have died. These were John R. Walsh, of Chicago, and William H. Eggleston, of Cincinnati.

FORESEE DEATH OF FIREMAN

Mother and Sisters Pleaded With Boy Not to Go on Engine.

Grand Junction, Col., Sept. 6.—Disregarding the pleading of his mother and two sisters, who had dreamed that he would be killed, Jack Forrest, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forrest, of this city, left on a Denver and Rio Grande freight engine early in the morning for his first run to Helper, Utah, as a fireman. When within eight miles of his destination he was instantly killed in a collision. Fireman W. H. Raymore, of Helper, was also killed. Engineer A. B. Keeley, of Grand Junction, sustained injuries, and Engineer Bole, of Helper, escaped with bruises. So certain was Forrest's mother that he would be killed that she waited on the front porch of her house all morning to meet the messenger who would bring the tidings. Responsibility for the crash has not been determined. The accident occurred on a sharp curve and before either engineer had warning of the danger the two trains crashed into each other, pinning the engine crews beneath the wreckage.

FALL IMPORTATIONS FROM FASHION'S CAPITALS

European Ideas Together With American Productions

It may not be Fall by the almanac, but it's Fall at the Rosenthal store. We are showing new Fall merchandise in complete assortments. You will give us a lot of credit for the splendid work we have done in preparing for your Fall needs. There is evidence on every side of the care, the knowledge and the experience we have exercised in making selections from the best offerings of the world's markets. We'd like to have your inspection and criticism.

Fashion Has Planned Agreeable Surprises in the New Tailored Suits.

Coats so different—longer and more graceful in fit. Robespierre and directoire styles, smart cutaway models. A radical change in skirt designing—the innovation of pleats and folds being mostly responsible.

Fashionable Cutaway Suits at 16.75

Splendidly tailored throughout and a better value could not be obtained for the money. Fabric is heavy diagonal Cheviot. Coat shows the clever new cutaway effect, guaranteed lining. Skirt shows the latest innovation in pleats.

English Model 20.00

Black and white diagonal novelty. Back of the smart coat shows one sided trim effect, patch pockets, slight cutaway front. Skirt shows side pleat effect.

Novel Parisian Suit, Stunning Style 33.50

Fashioned from a beautiful quality imported corded fabric of finest weave. Coat shows the new overlap effect fastening with two large buttons. A special feature is the new collar and directoire reverses effect with an application of beautiful embroidery work. One of the high class designs.

OVERSHADOWING ALL FORMER MODES

New and Distinctive Coat Styles.

The well three-quarter, four-fifths and seven-eighths lengths being much in evidence. A becoming coat can be easily selected. Fabrics are heavy and rich, like the styles unlimited in variety. The early critics have wondered at their beauty, so will you.

Novel New Fall Coats in Splendid Array, at 12.50

We've a dozen different styles representing all the heavy, fashionable materials and colorings, one especially a new one just added the price lot is of and has the much-wanted one-sided trim back.

A Great Coat Value 15.00

Seven-eighths model of double texture diagonal cloaking; new double collar showing an effective combination of the face and reverse side novel patch pockets. Wear it buttoned up snugly or with reverse effect, the style is splendid either way; wide half belt at back, new full sleeves. Fabric is heavy boucle.

Most Stunning Robespierre Coat, 3/4 Length 23.50

If you were to see this coat on the street, you would surely be amazed at its beautiful lines that add such graceful effect. Black and white, double effect.

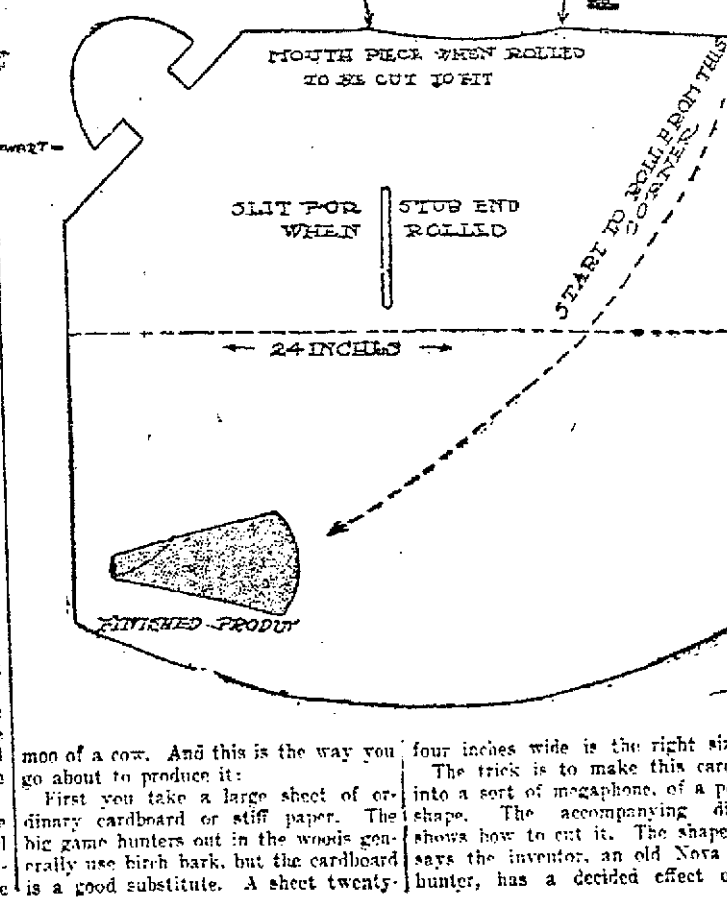

Dresses, Gowns and Costumes in All Their Beauty

More words alone are inadequate to justly describe it all, feasting the eyes gives the best impression. Our dress department has always been considered style headquarters. You know why—because we show the new things first and in ample varieties—we've done greater things for this Fall than ever before.

Chiffon Gowns, $12.50 Just imagine a pretty evening frock of filmy chiffon—low neck, short sleeves, yoke exquisitely hand embroidered, pretty rosette and girle of mesuline silk to match. We know you will think it pretty.	Serge Dresses, $12.75 Old in name of fabric only; new shades, new design and beautiful. Bodice in surplus effect from which falls a panel of white serge, offset with buttons. Patent leather belt, lace ruffle at neck, black satin collar and cuffs.	Corduroy Dresses, $13.50 What wonders a pretty trimming scheme adds to corduroy. What a beautiful contrast results if the combination is correctly selected as in the instance of this smart model, showing such tasteful application of silk, net and lace.	Silk Dresses, $18.50 Cape is the beautiful fabric used in this pretty gown. A yoke of net with high collar and a finish of chiffon and lace edging brings about a most pleasing effect; long sleeves with a lace ruffle finish at cuffs also adds to the prettiness.

The Bull Moose Call

Do you want to make a noise like a bull moose?
This hasn't necessarily anything to do with politics. It doesn't concern political speeches, or the principles of the progressive party. But since T. R. organized his party, the moose has had so much advertising that there's a natural curiosity about everything concerning him. And since the bull moose, at the Chicago convention and ever since, have been trying with varying degrees of success to imitate the call of the moose in the wild, you may want to know how to produce the real call.
So whether you're a howling progressive or just a boy, follow instructions, and you'll be able to make a noise that will rattle the welkin and scare the crows—or cops—according to whether you live in the country or the city.
And if you're lucky enough to be where there are real moose, you can use the apparatus to call this lordly animal from his haunts just as the old moose hunters do.
There's nothing else in nature quite like the moose call. It's a fearful and wonderful noise, something like the combination of the squeal of a pig and the sounds you can produce with it.

After cutting the cardboard in the required shape, you start at the corner indicated, and roll it up into a megaphone or cornucopia shape, and insert the little flap on the end in the slit cut for it near the center of the sheet. That holds the thing together. Then you cut the small end of it to fit your mouth, big enough so the lips will go inside.
Having got the moose megaphone together, put your mouth to the small end, covering the lips, and then, with the lips closed, start to grunt like a pig. But just before the pig grunt is really made, open the mouth and turn the sound into a noise something like the moo of a cow.
That may sound difficult and complicated, but the result will surprise you. The sound can't be described, but it will be a real moose call, and once heard it is never forgotten.
You can't go far wrong. The strange thing about this megaphone is that, whether the voice of the person grunting and mooring into it is a woman's soprano or a man's bass, the resulting noise is almost the same.

GOT AWAY WITH GALLON OF BEER

Lad of Seventeen Had Three Bottles More When the Police Got Him.

GAVE HIM A WARNING NO PAPERS SERVED

When Harvey Hughes, seventeen years of age, was arraigned in the city court today for public intoxication he said that he had carried away seven quarts of beer from the Centlivre bottling house, where he was employed, and had drunk four of them and they made him so drunk that Walter Cavanaugh, patrol driver, picked him up in the city market last night.

He stated that nobody gave or sold the beer to him and that he just took it and drank too much. He had three quarts with him when he was taken into custody. The judge allowed him to go after a warning to hunt some other sort of work and to quit drinking intoxicants.

The docket was made up largely of drunks. John Hudson, who was found with his head packed in ice, put about him by good Samaritans, who thought he had been overcome by the heat, was fined $1 and costs.

John Snyder drew $5 and costs and Erwin Roche and John Nerie were let go.

Henry David and Arthur Miller, picked up for loitering about town, were given an opportunity to get out.

CHARACTER TOLD BY TONGUE

Many Ways by Which That Organ Reveals the True Disposition of Its Owner.

Germany has taken up the pastime of reading character and telling fortunes by the tongue. A long tongue is said to denote openness of character; it suggests generosity and free-handedness. Its possessor makes friends and enemies easily, but does not save money.

When the tongue is long and thick the openness degenerates into a tendency to gossip and scandal. The future of the owner is beset with troubles of his own making. It also indicates flightiness and inconstancy.

Short tongues indicate secretiveness and dissimulation. Their owners make good detectives and attorneys. The owner may acquire some money by economy and guile, but has not largeness of spirit to make a great fortune. Very thin pointed tongues are found in different people who do not succeed in life.

Short and broad ones accompany craft and falsehood, the person who has such a tongue is compelled by it to deceive and betray, whatever effort he may make to keep straight.

The vibrant, quivering tongue denotes the artistic temperament. Brilliant carmine hue is a sign of long life, pale pink tongue denotes both weakness of character and delicacy of constitution.

SUIT FILED TO SECURE REVENGE

Will Peters Says That Mary
Banet Has No Claim Against Him.

NO PAPERS SERVED

Will F. Peters, against whom Mary Banet, former Fort Wayne girl, filed action for $25,000 in the superior court at Chicago yesterday, contends that the action was filed in a spirit of revenge and without any idea of obtaining money from him and that it was instigated by some one other than the girl herself because she has no ground for demanding money from him for breach of promise. No papers in the case have been served here.

Mary Banet formerly worked at the Hoosier Manufacturing company's plant and he says he barely knew her. She went to Chicago, where a baby was born, and told her relatives here she had been married and that her husband left her. Recently she visited a brother here and was without funds and he promised to pay her railroad fare, but she had been supplied with money when time for her departure arrived and she did not ask her brother to purchase transportation.

What Attorney Says.

Attorney Edward G. Hoffman, who has been engaged to look after the matter for Mr. Peters, made the following statement:

"I always hesitate to try cases outside of the court room. However, in this supposed law suit brought by one Mary Banet, of Chicago, against Mr. William F. Peters, of our city, I wish to say, as attorney for Mr. Peters, that this suit was filed yesterday in the superior court of Cook county, Illinois, wholly in the spirit of revenge and for the sake of notoriety. If the case had any merit it would have been brought in some court long before this time."

"The superior court in Chicago, in which this suit was filed, has no jurisdiction over the person of Mr. Peters and any judgment secured in that court would be worth absolutely nothing; and in the second place, if the charges in the complaint of the plaintiff are true, then the court has no jurisdiction to try the case for the reason that the statutes of limitation have run against the beginning of such an action."

"The manner of filing this suit proves conclusively that there is no basis for the same."

The Bill of Complaint.

In her bill of complaint filed at Chicago Miss Banet charges that Peters promised to marry her in July, 1906. She was then employed by his company. She declares that his courtship was impetuous and that she was constantly interrupted in the performance of her duties by his love-making. She alleges that he daily promised to marry her, but asked that their engagement be kept secret because of the differences in their social positions.

Miss Banet then says that their courtship and alleged wrongful love continued until the birth of their boy. She then came to Chicago, still thinking that Peters would make her his wife. Miss Banet says she was shocked and surprised by the announcement last December of the marriage of Peters to a Washington society belle.

She asserts that she has letters of recent date from Peters in which he offers to pay her $15 a month for two years if she will not press her suit and keep secret their former relations.

NO MIRRORS IN ELEVATORS

Reasons for Their Removal in Public Buildings and Hotels in Philadelphia.

Mirrors in Philadelphia elevators are doomed says a New York World's correspondent. The order for their removal from elevators at city hall went out recently, and will be followed by similar orders in the leading hotels and office buildings, notably the Bellevue, Stratford and the Land Title.

The mirrors are being done away with as the result of numerous complaints made. Conductors in the city hall elevators assert that nearly every girl who rides becomes so engrossed in "primping" before the silvered glasses in the elevators that they forget what floor they want and cause delay.

In the hotels and office buildings the conductors of the elevators, who are instructed not to speak to the occupants, utilize the mirrors to flirt with fair passengers, with the result that they pass the floors while ogling the girl. Another reason why the hotels will eliminate mirrors is that occasionally a passenger from the roof gardens becomes too boisterous and puts his fist through the glass, cutting his hand and afterward suing the hotel company.

PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

The Illuminati.

The Illuminati would be called in these days "Rationalists," or "Free thinkers," or "Liberals." Founded in Spain about 1575, the order or sect or whatever you may choose to call it, spread over all Europe, becoming especially strong in France and Germany. They claimed that truth, and the proofs of it, were internal, to be found in the reason and conscience, rather than in the outer works of things, such as creeds, forms and acts. The rationalism of the Illuminati was, as Matthew Arnold would say, "tinged with emotion," being a combination of rationalism and mysticism. The opposition of the church was strong, and the first of the Illuminati paid the usual penalty of being "unorthodox."

Here Are Two Attractive, Useful Bargains Offered Today

This High - Class Brass Bed

Including a brass bed with 2-inch continuous posts, fitted with a Diamond Weave Metal Spring and Cotton Felt Mattress. The entire outfit as shown,

$18.50

The Price, $18.50

For the entire outfit. That, in itself, does not mean anything to you unless you stop to calculate what the actual value of this merchandise is. In the following paragraphs we give you in detail the actual value of this merchandise, and prove to you conclusively that you will save almost one-half on this bed, mattress and spring if you buy this outfit from Hadley's.

The Bed

Which we can furnish you in either bright or satin finish, stands 60 inches high at the head, and 35 inches high at the foot. The continuous posts are of two-inch brass tubing and have full mounts at the head and foot-board as shown in illustration. There are 7 1/2-inch fillers in both head and foot. The bed is covered with famous Damard Lacquer, which will not tarnish and will withstand both the action of acids and ammonia. Ask our salesman to show you this one big feature. This Bed could not be better if it cost $50.

The Spring

Kindly make note of the fact that the Bed alone sells regularly for $16.50.

By scrutinizing the cut carefully you will see that it has very heavy tubing and high risers. The Diamond-weave fabric is the product of Simmonds Mfg. Co., of Chicago, and is acknowledged by those who know as the best fabric used on a bed spring today. It has great resiliency and at the same time will not sag or throw the occupants toward the center. There are 26 helicals at both ends of the spring. The regular price is $8.00.

Terms: $2.50 Cash; $2.50 Monthly

Bring this bed, mattress and springs to your home or to any address you may designate. This clean and concise statement acquaints you with the exact amount you are expected to pay every month. Under this arrangement you have exactly eight months in which to pay your bill, and we shall be more than pleased to have you take advantage of this offer.

To Young Married Folks

We offer every inducement. The best possible merchandise obtainable at the lowest possible price consistent with the quality, and on terms which are consistent with your income. To you young married folks who wish to avoid the unpleasant features of a boarding house existence, we say: Come to us and we will offer you material assistance in establishing you in a home of your own, with every comfort and convenience at hand, and with but very little outlay of ready cash.

The Mattress

Is made under our special supervision. It is filled with clean cotton felt, which is absolutely free from shoddy, jute and other undesirable materials. It is made with a French Imperial Edge and is covered in fancy art ticks. A luxurious mattress, the kind that insures a perfect rest and perfect sanitation. It sells regularly at $10.00, and cannot be purchased elsewhere for less than that price.

For Future Deliveries

Among our readers there may be many who would like to purchase one of these outfits and are anxious to take advantage of the bargain we offer, but who are not quite ready at this time. To those we make the following proposition: Select one of these outfits and make a small deposit on same, and arrange with our salesman to hold it at our warehouse until such a time when you may wish it delivered. There will be no extra charge for this accommodation, and should circumstances in any way interfere with your plans, and you do not desire this outfit, we will return your deposit. We only ask these deposits as a showing of good faith.

You Figure the Saving

The bed sells regularly at $16.50; the spring at $8.50, and the mattress at $12.00, making a total of $31.50. These prices are not fictitious, but are the actual values of the merchandise, and what you would have to pay for them if they were bought individually or in the regular way. We combine the bed, mattress and spring and sell the entire outfit for $18.50, saving you exactly $13.00 on the outfit.

Courteous Treatment

A feature of our store service is the courteous treatment that our salespeople extend all who visit this institution. It makes absolutely no difference whether you wish to make a purchase now or later. Our force of competent, home-furnishing experts are here to show you through our institution at any time. Should your time be limited, and you wish to forego the possibility of a long wait, you may make an engagement by phone for any specified time, and we will have a salesman ready to wait upon you. This is but one of the many features of our store service.

Our Little Princess Outfit, $185

You cannot conceive of the beauties of our Little Princess outfit, which we are showing completely set up in our flat just as you would like to have it in your own home. This outfit consists of four rooms, elegantly furnished, with very dependable merchandise, just such furniture as any young married couple would be proud to own. And at the price, $185.00, we feel that we are giving the extreme in furniture values for those who do not wish to furnish so elaborately we are showing 3 rooms complete for $65.00. Furthermore, you can purchase either outfit on terms to suit.

MAY TRY TO GROW GINGER.

Jamaican Planning Introduction of New Plants in Texas.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 6.—On a mission to interest the railroad lines of south Texas and the people of the gulf coast country in the establishment of an experimental station near Houston for the purpose of introducing semi-tropical edible tuber plants into this section on a commercial basis, J. B. Webb, of Jamaica and Mexico, arrived in Houston. The plants in question include the cassava or tapioca yuca, Jamaica tyams, Jamaica ginger and calapinims. The latter are a cultivated variety of the common southern elephant ear that grow profusely in Houston.

SURPRISE HENRY BEADELL

Business Associates Remind Him of Fiftieth Birthday Anniversary.

A large crowd of prominent business men congregated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beadell, 351 West Woodland avenue, last evening, reminding the host of his fiftieth birthday anniversary. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Beadell, who unthoughtfully forgot to tell her husband about it, and he was completely surprised. Those present were members of the board of directors of the German-American National bank and some of the officials and directors of the Wayne Oil Tank company. John W. Eggegan presided as toastmaster at the feast.

Those present say that politics was not discussed, but it is also said that representatives from all political parties were present. Col. D. N. Foster represented the progressives; Mr. Eggegan, as democratic nominee for circuit judge, represented the democrats, and Frank Taft the republicans. The fact developed that no prohibitionists were present, so those in attendance unanimously voted that Herman Mackwitz adopt the role of a prohibition representative for this single occasion. It is reported that Mr. Mackwitz was not in favor of this, but majority ruled.

OLD MAN WINS THE SWIM.

Defeats Five Expert Boys in a Quarter-Mile Race.

Greeley, Col., Sept. 4.—Samuel B. Wright, aged 70, one of the founders of Greeley, longed for the old swimming hole so much that he mounted his pinto pony, rode to Seeley's lake, four miles out, and took his first swim in eighteen years. Wright, who is a great joker, hung around the edge of the lake for a time, appearing to slum deep water, to study the fifty boys swimming there. Picking out the best five swimmers he challenged them for a race. For the first fifty yards it was neck and neck. Then Wright shook the water out of his ears and shot ahead, making the opposite shore, a quarter of a mile, 200 yards in the lead.

BIDS HELD OVER FOR OBJECTIONS

Material Selected and Bids Received for Delayed Paving Jobs.

THE BIDS IN DETAIL

Bids received by the board of public works at the meeting of last night were held over ten days after the material had been selected. This action was taken to give property owners a chance to make any changes that they may desire. For Morrison avenue, Webster street and Clinton street brick was selected and sheet asphalt was picked for the others.

The bids were as follows: Greenwood avenue to point 574 feet south, Brooks Construction company, $7.08 per lineal foot; Moellering Construction company, $6.81; Grace Construction company, $6.65, and Trippier & Son, $6.75.

Morrison avenue to Rudion avenue, Brooks Construction company, $7.73; Moellering Construction company, $6.59; Grace Construction company, $6.65, and Trippier & Son, $6.65.

Webster street from Main to Pearl, Brooks Construction company, $11.45; Moellering Construction company, $11.89; Grace Construction company, $11.39.

Clinton street from Fourth to Sixth, Brooks Construction company, $6.94; Moellering Construction company, $6.85; Grace Construction company, $6.57, and Trippier & Son, $6.50.

Summit street from Division to McCulloch, Brooks Construction company, $7.61; Moellering Construction company, $7.84; Grace Construction company, $7.73.

Taber street from Lafayette to Hanna, Brooks Construction company, $7.65; Moellering Construction company, $7.77, and Grace Construction company, $7.83.

Fairfield avenue from Organ to Russell, Brooks Construction company, $8.67; Moellering Construction company, $8.90, and Grace Construction company, $8.95.

Huestis avenue from Broadway to Thompson, Brooks Construction company, $7.61; Moellering Construction company, $7.15, and Grace Construction company, $7.07.

Lincoln avenue from Indiana avenue to Broadway, Brooks Construction company, $7.51; Moellering Construction company, $6.62, and Grace Construction company, $6.49.

The bids for brick were for Metropolitan or other brick. The Grace Construction and Supply company submitted bids on anchored bituminous concrete and on Trinidad Pitch Lake asphalt.

Bids were opened for the printing of the annual report, but action on matter was deferred for a day or two.

The bonds of the Moellering Construction company and Fred H. Fuelling company submitted to the board were approved and contracts entered into with them for improvements to streets and alleys.

Bloomington residents presented a petition asking that Harrison street be opened across the St. Mary's river. The board ordered that plans be made.

ROAD SINKS IN FIERY PIT.

Two Men and Morses Burned by an Unusual Cave-in.

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 6.—Bladstone Hopewell and his son Frederick, of Northumberland, narrowly escaped being cremated in a recently built filling at the Susquehanna river bridge, between this place and their home. Both were badly burned, as were two horses they drove, one having to be shot. The men were victims of a cave-in. The approach to the bridge had been augmented by eighteen inches of ashes, paper, trees and more refuse, and all this took fire several days ago. As the Hopewells drove over the road it suddenly collapsed, causing the wagon to sink a number of feet into a mass of fire. The wild neighing of the horses and shrieks of the two men drew a number of pedestrians to the scene who pulled the victims from the hole with a rope, after which the horses were removed from the pit with block and tackle.
